SENSATIONAL TALE OF KR/ HENKO'S DRIV RESUMED

Premiers Office 15 Nov 13

Admits Th Told a Lie Because as Afraid of Alleged Bandit.

HELD REVOLVER IN HAND ALL THE TIME IN CAB

Threatened to Break Spark Plugs of Machine, But Was Coaxed Not To.

Morden, March 27.—William Dyck's sensational story of his trip with the alleged Plum Coulee bandit immediately following the robbery and murder at the bank in that town on December 2, was this morning resumed.

Dyck took up his story at the point where he left off at adjournment yesterday, when his passenger, whom he said positively was Krafchenko, discovered that he had lost his watch. Krafchenko then, he said, told him the story he was to tell on his return to Plum Coulee, which was to the effect that he had taken two passengers, one an old man and the other younger.

Krafchenko, said Dyck, told him that if he did not say what was right, "I" he did not get me some of his friends would."

His passenger, continued Dyck, emptied two bags of silver into one, and asked Dyck if he wanted the bag. Dyck refused it, whereupon the other took a handful of coin and put it into one of Dyck's pockets. Then he threw the bag under the seat, remarking that the stuff was too heavy. He kept his revolver in hand all the time.

Krafchenko Quits Auto.

About a mile and a half north of Osborne his passenger got out and said he would leave Dyck there. He threatened to break the spark plug of the car, but Dyck urged him not to, and the passenger left them alone saying it would be dark any way before Dyck got home.

Krafchenko walked on north, and Dyck returned to Plum Coulee, where he was taken in charge by a provincial constable. He admitted telling this to be a false story, the one dictated to him by his passenger. He told this because of the threats made by Krafchenko, he said.

This concluded the direct examination, and Dyck was then taken in hand by J. D. Suffiel, defence counsel. Dyck said he had a good memory, but would not commit himself to positive statements on happenings in January.

Cross Examinations.

Mr. Suffield devoted the balance of the morning to the cross examination, and will likely take up at least all afternoon, going into all details in a very exhaustive manner. When he heard Krafchenko had escaped, Dyck said he did not feel "any too safe." Dyck was questioned at length about a check given the day the bank was robbed and about his banking affairs in general. He admitted telling falsehoods to his wife and to a traveler about the trip he was to make under Krafchenko's alleged threats.

Dyck denied having had in his possession at any time a copy of the evidence he gave at the preliminary hearing, and denied having had anyone hunt for the pages of that evidence to get up." He had gone over his evidence once, with the crown prosecutor, and Jacob Handel, and on no other occasion, he said. He denied having met Krafchenko of the night the trip into the country is said by Dyck to have been arranged.

Coat in the Willows.

Yesterday Dyck told of the "man in black being loaded down with bundles of bills, and two bags of silver, of his taking off his beard when they cleared the town and of his recognizing him as John Krafchenko.

Dyck told of Krafchenko counting the money and of his finally taking off the black coat and hiding it in some willows. He identified the coat which was earlier identified by witnesses as the one found under a clump of willows by detectives taken there by Dyck. It is also the same coat identified yesterday morning by Winnifer Humboldt, an actor, and his wife, as the coat lent by Humboldt to John Krafchenko, and which Krafchenko had never returned.

Dyck said that Krafchenko told him as they sped along that he hoped he had not killed the "son of ——."

Dyck asked him "Who."

Dyck said that Krafchenko replied "Arnold. I shot him through the shoulder."

B. W. Folger is Dead.

Toronto, March 27.—B. W. Folger, president of the Kingston street railway, well known in railroad and steamship circles, died here today. A week ago Mr. Folger suffered a stroke of apoplexy.

Eleven Workmen Drowned.

Brunsduettel, Germany, March 27.—Eleven workmen were drowned today when a suspended cable car fell into a lock of the Kiel canal, while they were crossing.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL TO BE ERECTED IN CITY

Plans Drawn Up for Beautiful Structure Costing Half a Million.

CONVENT AND SEMINARY WILL BE ALSO BUILT

Site Proposed on South Side—Work to Commence at Once.

H. Milton Martin, financial agent of the archiepiscopale corporation, when interviewed by a Capital reporter today stated there would be a large Roman Catholic cathedral built on the south side of the river in block 145 Garneau, costing over quarter of a million dollars. The cathedral will face on Sixth street west and will be 120 feet by 220 feet. Bishop's palace and power house and residence will be placed to the rear of the cathedral, the bishop's palace facing on second avenue north and the power house and residence on Third avenue north. Work will commence immediately on the new cathedral and the palace and power house in the course of two or three months.

It is planned next year to build a large seminary on the north half of block 144 immediately to the west of the church and according to the plans and specifications a beautiful convent will be built on block 146. When the full scheme is completed the cost will amount to well over $750,000 approximately half a million to be spent this year and $250,000 next year.

Roland W. Lines, M.S.A., the architect, states the proposed buildings will be the finest in the west.

GRAND NATIONAL STEEPLECHASE IS WON BY SUNLOCH

London, March 27.—The seventy-fifth renewal of the grand national steeplechase, the Derby of steeplechasing, a handicap of £2,500, run over about four miles and a half of the difficult country at Aintree, Liverpool, was won today by an outsider, T. Tyler's Sunloch, a seven-year-old bay gelding by Sundorne-Gralloch, one of the bottom weights, carrying 9st. 7lb., and starting at 100 to 6. French horses occupied seconds and third places, the former being M. H. De-Mumm's Trianin III., 10st. 4lb., starting at 100 to 6, while the favorite Mr. Joseph, M. James Hennessy Luttrell III., 12st. 6lb., 10 to 1, was third. Fourth place was filled by top weight, last year's winner, Sir Charles Ashton Smith's Covertcoat, 12st. 7lb. Covertcoat was equal favorite with Luttrell III., at 10 to 1, and Sir George Bullough's Ilston, 10st. 12 lb., unplaced, also started at the price.

The field numbered a score other also runs being Ali Gold II., Diplomatist II., Rocent, Another Delight, Dutch Peasant, Rory O'Moore, Bahadur, Fetlar's Pride, Ballyhackie, Great Cross, Rhodstone, Thorel Pin Blowpipe, Jacobus, and Couverfeu II.

His Majesty's Twelfth Lancer was scratched on the eve of the race.

Covertcoat, last year's winner, joint favorite with Luesteur III., and Ilston, at 10 to 1, finished eighth, and only eight horses in all completed the course. Sunloch won by eighth length the same distance separating the two French horses, Rory O'Moore was fourth, Bahadur fifth, Couvrefeu II sixth, Great Cross seventh and Covertcoat eighth. The remaining dozen horses came to grief at various stages of the race.

LIBERAL MEETING HELD TONIGHT IN ARCADE THEATER

Tonight will wind up the series of district liberal organization meetings, when district No. 12 will meet in the Arcade Theater, Kinistino avenue, at 8.30. This district lies mostly in the flats and is east of First street and south of Jasper avenue. A Poole is convenor and will act as chairman, and the other speakers will probably be chosen from the following: Hon. A. G. MacKay, Hon. Wilfrid Gariepy, J. A. Clarke, Jos. Driscoll, J. W. Adair, William Rea and others.

Lake Navigation Opens.

Sarnia, March 27.—Lake navigation was opened yesterday by the freighter Harvester, which left here on a trip to Detroit, breaking through fairly heavy ice in the St. Clair river and Lake St. Clair.

Cleaning up Regina.

Regina, March 27.—On the recommendation of Dr. How, medical health officer, some 140 houses or shacks are to be condemned and torn down. All others "must secure" water and sewer connections within two months.

STATES STEEL IS NOW FIVE MILES NORTH SAWRIDGE

Division Engineer Brown Says Grading on E. D. & B. C. Being Rushed.

TRAINS CAN RUN OVER THE TEMPORARY BRIDGE

Reports An Enormous Increase in Traffic Going Into North Country.

D. Brown, division engineer of construction on the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. railway, is in the city. Seen at the King Edward hotel this morning, he stated that steel on the road has now reached Fish Point, five miles beyond Sawridge, where a "wye" is being built.

Grading is partially completed past Grouard, and will be ready for the steel that far in a couple of months. Mr. Brown says that trains can now run over the temporary bridge over the Athabasca at Smith, to which passenger trains are now running, and if the permanent steel structure is not ready before spring, the pilars of the temporary one can be re-driven and used until the steel bridge is ready for traffic.

An idea of the enormous traffic going to the Peace River country can be gained from the fact that every day now freight trains leave the Dunvegan yards in the northwest part of the city. At the same time the Canadian Northern reports no diminution in its Athabasca traffic, which shows that all the freight going over the E. D. and B. C. is a pure increase over last year.

If permission is granted by the railway commission to run trains between Smith and Sawridge, as the board granted for the line between the city and Smith some time ago, one will be able to go from here to Grouard by rail as far as Sawridge and the rest of the distance by boat as soon as Lesser Slave lake opens up for navigation in May.

Large numbers of settlers are going into the Peace River country via the E. D. and B. C., and many also are settling along the line between Edmonton and Sawridge. The trains which leave the north yard twice a week are almost always filled to capacity, and a large number of cars of settlers' effects and other freight is always waiting to be taken out.

AMERICAN SETTLERS PASS THROUGH CITY ON WAY TO NORTH

Many of the settlers coming into central and northern Alberta this spring are Germans at the thrifty agricultural class, according to W. H. Clegg, immigration agent. A large group of Germans direct from the fatherland went to the Peers district, near Edson on the G. T. P., the other have also gone into that and other districts contiguous to Edmonton.

Most of the settlers, of course, are Americans. In fact, to look at the register at the immigration office one would imagine oneself in an American hotel. The Peace River country especially is getting a very large share of American settlers, mostly of the class that has lots of money, live stock and experience, as well as a knowledge of the conditions under which they will live in their new homes.

This morning about 25 Americans passed through Edmonton, many of them for the north. Every train brings still others, but no matter how many come, there is so much room that one hardly notices the population increasing so fast.

PRESIDENT WILSON WINS FIRST FIGHT ON PANAMA TOLLS

Washington, D. C., March 27.—President Wilson won the first battle of his fight to repeal the Panama tolls exemption today, when the house, by a vote of 267 to 126 refused to commit discussion on the rule to limit to 20 hours the debate on the bill.

Fort Rouge Shops Closed.

Winnipeg, March 27.—The C.N.R. shops at Fort Rouge will be closed down, beginning today, until April 1, over 1,600 men are affected by this order of a temporary shut down, which is said to have been caused by lack of sufficient work to keep the force employed to advantage.

SCENE OF THE EXPLOSION AT THE EDMONTON IRON WORKS YESTERDAY.

The above picture was taken by a Capital reporter immediately after the explosion in the Edmonton Iron Works yesterday afternoon. The large pieces of iron noticed were lifted bodily and thrown a considerable distance. The story of the accident is published on Page 2.

GREATER CARE IN CONSTRUCTION OF ALL AERIAL WIRES

Committee Appointed to Draft Rules As To Future Work In City.

AIM IS TO PREVENT ANY ELECTRICAL ACCIDENTS

Will Report on Respective Liability To Be Borne By Departments.

With a view to having the construction of all aerial wires carrying electric current constructed in future according to the most up-to-date plan and in harmony with all the departments using same, Commissioner Chalmers moved in commissioners' meeting this morning that a committee be appointed to go into this matter. The members of this committee are Superintendent Ormsby, Superintendent Caldwell, Superintendent Woodroofe, Fire Chief Lauder and Chief Constable Lancey. The duties of the committee as set out in the motion are to draft rules and specifications covering the construction, maintenance and upkeep of all aerial wires carrying electric current in the city; also to report in the matter of the respective liability to be borne by the departments using poles in common, especially in regards to accidents; also that the superintendent of the electric light department report as to the present condition of the aerial work in the city, and where, in his opinion, it might be considered in an unsatisfactory condition; also that Superintendent Ormsby be made convenor of the committee and instructed to have the report of the committee in the hands of the commissioners not later than May 1 next.

Completed City Audit.

Auditors Harvey and Robertson, of the firm of McIntosh and Fife, who have been in the city for several months making an independent audit of the city's books for a number of years back, have completed their work and will return to Calgary today. It is understood their report will be presented to the council at the next regular meeting on Tuesday evening.

Delayed Liner Reported.

New York, March 27.—The French liner La Touraine, whose four days' standing in reaching this port caused some apprehension, was reported 110 miles east of Sandy Hook by a wireless dispatch at 6.30 a.m. today. She should reach her dock late today.

Orangemen Meet Monday.

Jasper Loyal Orange lodge, No. 2404, will hold a special meeting on Monday evening next in the Oddfellows' hall, Norwood block, for the purpose of conferring the royal arch purple degree on a large number of candidates. All brethren are requested to attend.

ASQUITH STILL UNABLE TO MAKE STATEMENT

All He Can Say is That the Government is Awaiting the Reply of French and Ewart to Remain at Their Posts—Question Involved Requires Very Full Consideration.

London, March 27.—The resignations of Field Marshal Sir John French, and Lieutenant General Sir John Ewart have not yet been withdrawn and Premier Asquith, after twice deferring his statement, was able to announce in the house of commons this afternoon only that the government was awaiting the reply of the army officers to the cabinet's request that they remain in their post.

Premier Asquith reached the house of commons straight from the second of cabinet meetings held today, both of which were attended by the chief of the army, General Field Marshal Sir John French.

The premier said matters in the question involved were of great complicity and difficulty and seemed to the government to require very full consideration.

A partial or provisional statement would be unsatisfactory.

Sir John French and Lieutenant-General Sir John Ewart, the adjutant general of the forces, had intimated a wish to be relieved of their office, Asquith said, not because of any differences between their views and those of the government as to the conditions under which the army should serve or should be employed in the aid of civil power, but having issued the memorandum to Brigadier General Gough, they thought this course incumbent upon them. Premier Asquith then added:

"The government has conveyed to them its wish that as there is no difference of opinion on any ground or policy they should not persist in their request, the carrying out of which the government would regard as a serious misfortune to both the army and the state. We still are waiting their report.

"Two gallant officers believe that in the circumstance they were justified in believing their action was in accordance with the instructions of the cabinet and that they were transmitting those directions to the officers concerned.

"It is clear to us and to them that there has been a misconception a genuine misconception, in regard to the intention and purport of the proceedings in Ireland out of which these difficulties have arisen."

The premier continued: "The new order in the army is headed 'Discipline.' It has three articles, which are as follows: 1—No officer or soldier shall in future be question by his superior officers as to what attitude he will adopt or as to his action in the event of his being required to obey orders dependent on future hypothetical contingencies.

2—An officer or soldier is forbidden in future to ask for assurances as to orders which he may be required to fulfill.

"3—It is the duty of every officer and soldier to obey, all lawful commands given them through the proper channels, either for safeguarding public property or to support the civil power in the ordinary execution of its duty, or for the protection of the lives and property of the inhabitants in case of disturbance of the peace.

"That is an order issued by the army council today, which has now been approved and which regulates the conduct and discipline of the army in future."

Proceeding with his speech, the premier remarked that he must repeat what ministers in both houses of parliament had said several times this week, but in view of the wild legends current it needed to be repeated. He said: "It is altogether untrue the government or any member of the government ever contemplated active operations of an aggressive character in Ulster or any operation which now or in the future would impose on the army duty or service which was not amply covered by the terms of this order. To that I have only to add that the government adheres to all the declarations it has made."

Dublin, Ireland, March 27.—Brigadier General Hubert Gough, commander of the Third Cavalry brigade, hurriedly left the Curragh camp for London this afternoon.

OXFORD-CAMBRIDGE TRACK AND FIELD MEET HELD TODAY

London, March 27.—The annual athletic meeting between track and field teams representing Oxford and Cambridge was held at Queens club today. H. M. MacKentosh, of Cambridge, won the 100 yard dash in 10 1-5 seconds. V. B. Havens, a Rhodes scholar from Rutgers college, was third. E. T. Adams, of Oxford, won the hammer throw with a mark of 123 feet, 7 inches. Adams is a Rhodes scholar from Baylor university, Waco, Texas.

Prince Francois Marie Dead.

Montreux, Switzerland, March 27.—Prince Francois Marie of Bourbon and the two Sicilies, died here today.

CARDEN CANCELS HIS CONTEMPLATED TRIP TO CITY OF MEXICO

London, March 27.—Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, today cancelled his booking on board Mauretania on which he was to sail from Liverpool tomorrow for New York on his return to Mexico city.

It is understood there is a possibility of Sir Lionel going direct to Rio De Janeiro to take up his post as minister of Brazil instead of to Mexico. Nothing, however, has been definitely decided as to future movements. The only statement for foreign office would authorize was that that Sir Lionel's passage to New York had been cancelled and that no date had been fixed for his return to Mexico City.

PROPOSE TO BUILD LINE NORTH FROM EDMONTON AT ONCE

Rinaldo M. Hall Declares Envious Eyes Been on Region for Many Years.

OBTAIN RUNNING RIGHTS OVER MONTANA ROUTE

Will Probably Council With U. S. Road to Be Laid to Alaska.

The fact that it has been known for years that the Hill and Harriman railway interests have been casting envious eyes on the only great undeveloped field left in North America, the Peace River country; that this country is now absolutely known to contain rich oil, iron, asphaltum sands and other mineral wealth; that the wheat and other freight traffic to and from there will in a few years be enormous, and last but not by any means least, that the United States government has already appropriated $40,000,000 for a railway into Alaska and must in time secure an overland route to there, through Alberta—all these facts form a combination of circumstances which make it almost certain that the interests of the late E. H. Harriman are at the present moment about to enter the Peace River country, through Edmonton.

Advertising Manager Here.

There have been rumors of such a probability before, but nothing definite could be learned until last night, when it leaked out that Rinaldo M. Hall was in the city, presumably in the interests of the Harriman people. Mr. Hall was advertising manager of them in the Pacific Coast and Intermountain states for five years, and supervised the expenditure of over $100,000 yearly in advertising and exploiting that part of the country for the purpose of increasing the freight and passenger traffic over the great system, which comprises the Southern Pacific, stretching into southern California and other southern states; the Union Pacific, connecting the S. P. with the east and middle west; the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company, cutting through the heart of the richest parts of Oregon, Washington, Idaho and other states of the northwest, and other smaller lines.

Reticent Regarding Business.

Mr. Hall was located by a Capital reporter in the King Edward hotel and, as is usual with railway men, was reticent as to any business connected with railway matters here, but he was not reticent about the Peace River country. In fact, it would surprise one to learn that Mr. Hall seemed to be a veritable walking encyclopedia on the north country. Every point in it from Hudson's Hope, B.C., to Fort McMurray, seemed as familiar to him as if he had been born and raised there.

Mr. Hall's visit to Edmonton and the Peace River country at this particular time is indeed significant, as in connection with one of his party, it was learned that plans have already been made to pierce the heart of the Peace River country, via southern Alberta, Calgary, Edmonton and Dunvegan. According to the information received in the interview, the indomitable spirit of the late E. H. Harriman lives after him and the steel bands of his railways will penetrate the vast and rich northwest of Canada as they did the western half of the United States in the last quarter of a century. The whole territory will be conquered and its rich mineral, fishing, timber and agricultural resources brought into touch with the world.

Not Build South.

It is apparently not the intention to build new lines south of Edmonton unless necessary, as the country it is designed to reach is the great northwest. Running west will be obtained over the Hill line which now reaches north from Montna to Lethbridge, and from there over one of the lines now being built by one of the C.N.R. or G.T.P. to Edmonton. Northwest from here no time will be lost or money spared to build a first class road to a point opposite Dunvegan on the north side of the Peace river. Father than that no information could be definitely ascertained, but it was intimated that the line would divide into two or three branches at that point so as to operate over the whole country like a fork, one going west through the Pine or Peace River pass to the Pacific, one to the north east to open the great mineralized region and the other north and west toward Alaska.

Open Mineral Region.

Each of these three branches would serve a useful and very important purpose. One would secure a foothold in the oil, iron and mineral region, the second would provide an outlet on the north Pacific coast and became a rival of the G.T.P. as a short route to the Orient, while the third would connect with the government road in Alaska, it being a well known fact that the railway and other allied interests concerned stand close to the United States

KING GEORGE IS PERTURBED OVER THE CRITICISMS

There has been No Such Outburst Against a British Monarch for Nearly a Century as Has Occurred Because of His Alleged Interference in the Army Crisis.

New York, March 27.—A London special cable to the World, dated Thursday, says:

"King George returned to London today after a two days' visit to Lord Derby at Knowsley of Lancashire, in a state of the greatest perturbation because of the public references made in parliament and in the press to his interference in the army crisis. There has been no such outburst against a British monarch for nearly a century, and George V. has sense enough to see it in a portent not to be ignored.

The World correspondent learns on high authority that as soon as he read of the demonstration provoked in the house of commons on Tuesday by John Ward, declaring that "parliament will brook no interference from the king or the army," his majesty dispatched an equerry post haste to London, with a letter to Premier Asquith, begging him to see that his name is kept out of the controversy.

Appeals to Asquith.

The letter appealed to Mr. Asquith to say whether King George had not acted within the strict limits of the constitution in everything that has happened since he came to the throne, and bitterly complained of the unfair attacks of the labor party.

As a result of this appeal Premier Asquith and War Minister Seeley made statements in parliament yesterday that the king had acted with all propriety.

On reaching Buckingham Palace the king sent for Premier Asquith, who remained closeted with him for an hour. What took place has not leaked out, but afterward in the house of commons the royal alarm was further reflected in the attitude of the ministers, who appealed privately to their followers to drop talk about the king's action, hinting that if this should be done, it would improve their position with the sovereign.

But the radicals and the laborites are little inclined to adopt this advice, pointing out that it was immediately on his return from an audience with the king on Monday that War Secretary Seeley drafted the addendum to the cabinet's communication to the mutinous officers which has caused the government's present difficulty.

The bitter feeling on this point is again voiced in the Star, the most widely read radical paper. It says:

"In spite of the prime minister's generous defence of his majesty, there is grave reason to believe that during the past few days there have been influences at work which cannot overlook the fact that the fatal paragraphs were added immediately after Seeley left Buckingham Palace. Nor can we overlook the significance of the visit paid by Lord Roberts paid to the king. Roberts is one of the chief promoters of the British covenant for the defence of Ulster. He has also in the house of lords incited the army to mutiny against the government in certain eventualities. We say that he is not a fit or proper person to be received at Buckingham Palace.

Hope for Salutory Effect.

"It is no use mincing words in this grave crisis. Nothing and nobody, high or low, must be considered, except the sacred and inviolable principle that, in the words of the prime minister, the considered will, judgment and authority of the representative of the people shall prevail."

Despite the minister's deprecation of the criticisms, the belief is general that they have had a salutory effect.

Queen Mary is said to be furious, as well be believed, seeing how much the king consults her before taking any important action.

Despite the undoubted favorable effect produced by yesterday's debate in parliament on the general position of the government, the crisis continues serious.

GENERALS SEEM NOT WILLING TO RESUME PLACES

Consider They Received a Rebuff in the Government's Repudiation of the Guarantees Which They Gave to Gough Regarding Ulster—Asquith's Statement is Delayed.

London, March 27.—Field Marshal Sir John French, who has tendered his resignation as head of the British army was called into the meeting of the cabinet ministers today to discuss his position with them.

At noon it was announced that the statement of commons had been postponed until 5 o'clock this afternoon. The session of the cabinet ministers was called at about 10 o'clock and continued three hours.

It was deduced from this protracted meeting that they found difficulty in repairing the rift in the organization caused by the blow given to it by the resignations of Sir John French, chief of the general staff, and Lieutenant General John Spencer Ewart, adjutant general to the forces.

The generals today seemed determined not to withdraw their resignations, it is said, but the government's decision, as they considered they had repudiation of the guarantees which they gave to Brigadier General Gough regarding Ulster.

EXPLOSION AT LOCAL IRON WORKS WRECKS CUPOLA ; THREE HURT

Many Workmen Have Miraculous Escape From Death—Huge Chunks of Molten Metal Lifted and Thrown In Every Direction—Accident Disorganizes Plant Temporarily.

An explosion which occurred yesterday afternoon at the iron works, shattered the hugh cupola containing over seven and a half tons of molten iron. Injured F. T. Rickett, foreman of the moulding shop, and two workingmen named. Charles Warner and Jack Stranche who were standing directly in front of the machine catching a ladle full of iron as it run out. Their escape from death is nothing short of miraculous as thousands of pounds of the molten metal and huge chunks of iron as well as hugh chunks of iron weighing one and two hundred pounds. These three were the only men that were hurt in any way by the explosion although the large moulding shop was full of men, and iron and bricks were scattered in all directions.

What caused the explosion is a mystery. The only reason that can be given is that there was some explosive in the scrap iron that was put in the furnace. With a rip and a crash that could be heard all over the city, a large hole about three or four feet square was torn in the funnel like part of the Cupola and a regular fusilade of iron and bricks began. This is how the accident was described by an eyewitness to a Capital reporter. Some of the pieces of iron were hurled 180 feet.

One of the reasons that no few were hurt in this accident, was because the hole from which the missiles were hurled was directly in line with a number of moulds and machines, so that excepting for the two or three men who were actually working at the cupola, none of them could be in the path of the flying metal.

While the actual expense of repairing the damage will reach a large figure, the worst loss to the firm will be from the fact that it will take a few days before the men will be able to work again. Just prior to the accident the cupola had been filled with about seven and a half tons of scrap iron to complete the last cast for a large order which the firm was filling.

THE REASON FEWER PEOPLE TAKE "SALTS"

We find the use of salts and other harsh physics is becoming less every year because more and more people are using Rexall Orderlies, which we and they firmly believe to be the best bowel remedy ever made. They taste so much like candy that even the children like them. At the same time they act so easily and naturally that there is no purging, griping or pain. They promptly remove the constipation and, by soothing and strengthening the bowels, make it less liable to occur again. We have the utmost faith in them. We know what they are made of and the pleasant, beneficial results that always follow their use.

You needn't take our word for it. If Rexall Orderlies don't help you—if they don't entirely relieve all your bowel troubles—come back and tell us and we'll give back your money. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at The Rexall Stores, and in this town only of us.

Sciatica Vanishes Instantly If Nerviline Is Used

CAN YOU BEAT THIS CASE?

No ordinary liniment will even relieve Sciatica. Nothing but the most powerful kind of a remedy can penetrate through the tissues and finally reach the Sciatic Nerve. You can always depend on the old-time "Nerviline." Nothing else today is as good for Sciatica as Nerviline was when first produced, about 40 years ago. All this time the same old "Nerviline" has been curing Sciatica, Lumbago, Rheumatism, and is considered to be without an equal in relieving pain or soreness anywhere. "Nerviline" couldn't be made stronger or better," writes James E. Edwards. "The way fit cures Sciatica is to me simply a miracle. For years I suffered frightfully. I rubbed my stomach with internal liniments. I rubbed gallons of oils and liniments—none were strong enough. One good rubbing with Nerviline relieved. I kept on rubbing and shortly was cured. My father cured rheumatism in his right arm and shoulder with Nerviline, and my mother cured herself of chronic lumbago with Nerviline. Our family simply swears by Nerviline and we are never without a 50c family size bottle in our home. We find that for external pain, for coughs, colds, earache, such minor ills it is a veritable family physician."

MEMBERS CENSURE PARTISAN FINDING TORY COMMISSION

Conservatives Show Themselves in True Light of "Little Canadians."

MESS RESULTING MAY CAUSE SERIOUS TROUBLE

Solicitor General Will Not Debate—Indulges in Party Attacks.

Ottawa, March 27.—The debate on the National Transcontinental Railway report was continued in the house yesterday by Hon. Arthur Meighen, solicitor general, and William Gorman, liberal member for Welland. Mr. Meighen who spoke for over three hours devoted all his attention to the speech made by Hon. George P. Graham, the former minister of railways who made the motion of censure which is now the subject matter of discussion. Mr. Meighen covered in detail all phases of the dispute. He defended the Cotelllus-Staunton commission as one which it was quite proper for the government to name. The liberals, he said had never been satisfied with commissions named by themselves. It was not to be expected that the conservatives would have one to suit them.

Mr. Meighen defended the findings of the commissioners in regard to the manner in which contracts had been let, the Transcona shops, their criticism that money had been wasted on steel bridges, lower grades and longer curves than were necessary. He contended that the commission named by the late government was not one which any railway company or any other government would have named to construct a transcontinental line. He maintained that the record of the original construction commission had been one of extravagance and was, and that everything in the report of the commissioned named by the government to inquire into the cost was justified.

William Gorman, who followed, said that the report was a partisan finding from beginning to end. It was designed only to hurt the liberal party and the Grand Trunk Pacific. The cry that the road would not pay was the cry of little Canadians who had not faith in their country. The changing of the grades, he said, would mean serious difficulties for the government in the future because the Grand Trunk Pacific could not be compelled to take over the line. Mr. Chamberlin had never agreed to the changes, and his letter of protest stands as a menace to the government in the future. Mr. Gorman declared that he had confidence enough in Canada and the country through which the road traversed to invest him will run to believe that it will pay within a few years.

The adjournment of the debate was moved by J. E. Armstrong of Lambton, who will speak today. The debate, will not be concluded this week.

CAPTAIN AND FIVE MEMBERS OF CREW ARE LOST AT SEA

Washington, March 27.—Loss at sea of the American schooner Hattie Simpson, of Boston, whose captain and five other members of the crew, was reported to the navy department last night in a delayed wireless message from the steamer Carcas which has on board three survivors of the schooner.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, sweaty feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

"Just couldn't wait to take my hat off!"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk. And then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

PREDICTS RUSH RIVALING THAT TO THE YUKON

Prospector Shows Samples of Gold Panned Out Near Fort Norman.

ALL STREAMS CONTIGUOUS SHOW PLACER RETURNS

Thousands of Caribou, Some Buffalo and Lots of Fish in Country.

After 11 months in the foothills of the Rocky mountains, away up north of the boundaries of Alberta, during which time his face became sun-kissed and brown, a well know prospector sat in his room at the King Edward hotel yesterday and showed three or four Edmontonians 16 ounces of gold which he panned out of the beds of three tributaries of the Gravel river, which flows into the Mackenzie near Fort Norman and about due east of Dawson.

He was sent up by five local capitalists, who were certain, from reports which had been brought down from time to time and from geological examinations, that gold existed in large quantities east of the Rockies in the same latitude as the Klondike as well as west. He has now been sent up there again by the same men, with grub-stake for another year or more.

He states that practically all the creeks and rivers flowing into the mighty Mackenzie at that latitude have good placer showings and predicts a rush into the country during the next two years that will rival the Yukon and Alaska in their palmiest days.

The three rivers which he explored all flow east and north into the Gravel, which in turn flows east from the mountains into the Mackenzie. They are the Twitya, Equl and Natla, and the prospector, who does not wish to have his name made public, states that most of the creeks which abound in that district abound in placer gold, as well as the beds of the rivers themselves.

Unlike the Yukon, he says that the Mackenzie River country will support a population outside of that which will depend on mining. Thousands of caribou, deer and even buffalo roam the plains and forests of the north and the rivers and lakes simply live with the finest of fish. Potatoes and vegetables are grown at all the posts of the Hudson's Bay company, and cattle can be successfully profitably raised.

SUFFRAGETTE ARSON SQUAD WRECKS FINE COUNTRY RESIDENCE

Belfast, March 27.—A suffragette arson squad early today burned down Abbey Lands, the splendid country residence of Major General Sir Hugh McCalmont near Castle Abbey on Belfast Lough. The house, although fully furnished, was not occupied except by caretakers.

The suffragettes recently threatened to start war against the Ulster unionists leaders because of the refusal of Sir Edward Carson to support the suffragette movement.

The grounds of Abbey Lands, which is only four miles from Carrick-Bergus, a British army station, have been used recently for drilling the Ulster unionist "volunteers."

B. F. Keith Drops Dead.

Palm Beach, Fla., March 27.—B. F. Keith, of Brookline, Mass., the vaudeville magnate, dropped dead of heart failure at his hotel here at midnight last night.

TAKE OVER ASSETS OF SYNDICATE; NEW COMPANY IS FORMED

As a result of explorations made during the past two years by T. D. Piche, a well known prospector of the north, a company composed of Lieutenant-Governor G. H. V. Bulyea, Hon. C. R. Mitchell, E. J. Taylor and Mr. Piche, and called the Athabasca Mining company, limited, has been formed to take over the assets of the Athabasca Mining syndicate.

At present the company owns 800 acres of nickel claims, 160 acres of iron claims and other assets. The nickel claims are on the north shore of Athabasca lake and the ore assays from 49 to 81 per ton. The iron lands are about 80 miles east of the nickel and is of a high grade, according to assays already made.

The significant part of the proposition is that these two metals, nickel and iron, exist very close to each and both close to fuel, which will be used to manufacture them into that valuable alloy, nickel steel, so much sought after by the industrial and armament world today. Thus the natural conditions exist for a huge nickel and steel industry.

Among the other mineral samples already brought to the city by Mr. Piche are pure bornite, showing the very high average of 60 to 70 per cent. of copper, and smaltite deposits showing cobalt bloom.

UTTERING CRY, MME. CAILLAUX REMINDS JUDGE

With Indignation She Recalls How the Figaro Had Baited Her Husband,

TELLS OF SUCCEEDING OTHER WOMAN AS WIFE

Informs Magistrate of the Receipt of a Letter Threatening Exposure.

Paris, March 27.—With a cry of indignation during her cross examination by Magistrate Boucard yesterday at the preliminary hearing into the killing of M. Calmette, Mme. Caillaux reminded the magistrate how the Figaro had baited her husband about the "Thy Joe" letter.

"I regret profoundly the consequence of my act" said the witness amid tears. "I would prefer a thousand times that the campaign had continued rather than I should have killed M. Calmette. It is impossible to find in my act another cause than that which I have given."

M. Boucard sought an explanation of the discrepancies in Mme Caillaux's recital before him and the story she told the police.

"In striking your husband" said the magistrate, "M. Calmette was fighting the politician, not the private citizen. Moreover, the letter signed 'Thy Joe' concerned another woman."

"Yes" responded the witness, "but it was I who succeeded that woman as the wife of M. Caillaux. I will recall to you how Calmette in an article on March 16 bantered my husband regarding the intimate nature of this letter; and that is not politics."

Mme. Caillaux told the magistrate that she had received on March 16 an anonymous letter, which she had since destroyed, informing her of the imminent publication of letters concerning her.

Asked by the magistrate to enlighten him regarding the contents of the letter, the publication of which she feared, Mme Caillaux said they concerned the private life of her husband and herself.

The inquiry into the Rochette affair by the special committee of deputies has practically closed and a report will be presented to the chamber at an early date.

Arrested on Theft Charge.

Alleged to have stolen fifty dollars and a razor from a rooming house at 719 Second street, A. Price and Henry Page were arrested last night by Detectives Lancey and Unruh. Victor Ericson, who is the complainant, has identified both men.

Terribly Afflicted With Lame Back.

Could Not Sweep The Floor.

When the back aches and pains it is almost impossible for women to do their housework, for every move and every turn means an ache or a pain.

Women are beginning to understand that weak, lame, and aching backs from which they suffer so much are due to wrong action of the kidneys, and should be attended to at once so as to avoid years of suffering from kidney trouble.

On the first sign of anything wrong with the back Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken.

They go right to the seat of the trouble.

Mrs. Wilfrid Jolicoeur, Nouvelle, Que., writes:—"I take pleasure in writing you stating that I have received lasting Doan's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not sweep my own floor. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I only used three boxes, and I am as well as ever. I highly recommend these pills to any suffering from lame back or kidney trouble."

Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

EAT NEW BREAD, CABBAGE, SAUSAGE AND DIGEST IT. "PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN"

No indigestion, no sour, gassy stomach or dyspepsia. Try it!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you, stomach is disordered, you get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Most remedies give relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructions of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Put an end to stomach trouble by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

NEW DEBENTURE BYLAW IS PASSED BY CITY COUNCIL

The city council held a short special session at 5 o'clock last night at which two items of business were handled. A new debenture bylaw was passed and a change of bond for Manchester industries authorized. Solicitor Newell stated that the head office of the Imperial bank had wired that inasmuch as the recent sale of debentures were made up of 20 and 40 year denominations it would be necessary to pass a new bylaw as the one recently passed only referred to the 20 year class.

On motion of Alderman Clarke the regular rules were suspended to permit of the introduction, reading and final passing of bylaws 568 and 569, the one rescinding the former bylaw, number 547, and the other taking its place. The bylaws were then introduced, read three times and finally passed all in a few minutes.

Commissioner Chalmers called the attention of council to the fact that the owners of the several industries at Manchester were unable to get any bonding company to put up a bond as the council had asked. He said that if the work is to proceed this year there are parts of it that should be done before the frost leaves the ground and suggested, that it might be advisable that the council modify the terms of the bond or rescind the motion and pass a new regulation.

Several questions were asked about the matter and Alderman Clarke then moved that having heard from the commissioners in this matter, this council authorize and empower the commissioners, if in their judgment it is advisable, to take the private bond of W. J. Webster and others. The bond is to be for $6,000 and covers a period of five years. It guarantees the city $100 a month for the service and contains other provisions to fully protect the city.

The members of council present were Acting-mayor Driscoll, Aldermen May, East, Clarke, Sheppard, Kinney and Campbell. The commissioners present were Chalmers, Saunders and Heath with solicitors Bown and Newell. The council then adjourned.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIER REMINDS CHURCHILL OF JAP SITUATION

London, March 27.—Premier Cook of Australia delivered an important speech yesterday in which he discussed Hon. Winston Churchill's recent statement and expended the Australian attitude towards Imperial defence in the Pacific.

"We are told by imperial statesmen," he said, "that the Pacific is being made safe and secure, not by the mighty fleet and navy of the British fleet, but by the Anglo Japanese treaty. I hope Australia will always be on friendly terms with Japan and get closer to her in relations of trade and commerce and peaceful acts of civilization, and that the treaty will long continue in its present form. But when Australia is asked to rely on the Japanese treaty for the defence of the Pacific, a very serious situation is created. Japan is a nation, whose people Australia does not admit to her shores."

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS IF KIDNEYS ACHE OR BACK HURTS

Says Bladder irritation or Rheumatism means Kidneys aren't straining out uric acid.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve the bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these acids and clean and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

PROPOSED TO BUILD LINE NORTH FROM EDMONTON AT ONCE

government, which would only be too glad, it is said, to procure an overland route to Alaska, an invaluable thing in case of war with Japan, for instance.

"I have been actively connected with the development of the large territory through which the Harriman roads pass," said Mr. Hall. "I have seen them grow from practically desert and forest to what they now are. Still, what are they doing in California today? That state has probably the finest system of roads—not railroads but auto and carriage roads—in America. Yet they are hunting the world over for asphaltum sands to make more and better roads and keep them dustless. The only place I know where they can get their asphaltum made is in the country north of Edmonton, and there the supply is practically inexhaustible.

Looking For Iron Ore.

"Probably you know that the Harriman roads have been looking for years for iron ore. There is none in California, Oregon or Washington, that I know of, but up north of this city you have it in limitless amounts. It is also now well known that oil exists there in great quantities. This is saying nothing of coal and other minerals, timber and fish and, most important of all, the vast stretches of the most fertile land in the world. I honestly believe that the land south of the Peace river in the Dunvegan district is the richest on this globe, for any territory of its size. I also believe that one of the great cities of the north country will be on the south side of that mighty waterway at that point."

This reference to South Dunvegan, coming after the conversation with the other member of the party, confirms the statement that the proposed road will go there from Edmonton. Mr. Hall also casually mentioned the Peace River pass, which is said to have the lowest gradient of all the passes through the Rockies, considerably lower than the Yellowhead, and a railway from the Peace River country through there would provide a short route to the coast and to Asia.

Predicts Great Future.

"Yes, I certainly am coming back here," said Mr. Hall when questioned on the point. "This is a wonderful city now, but it is nothing yet to what it will be. Just think of having command over absolutely the only large undeveloped area in the world, and an area which in my opinion is the richest. If you take a trip up north and come back to Edmonton's fine hotels, you will realize that the city is. If you stay right in the city you will never fully realize what it is going to be. You must get a look at the limitless expanse of its rich hinterland. Then when you sit down in its richly appointed lobby or dining room such as the city now has, you will for the first time begin to know Edmonton."

Then he walked over to the taxi stand in the King Edward and ordered a taxi for the train to Calgary, which he took last night. The porter granted us he lifted up Mr. Hall's big grip, which was filled almost entirely with maps, pictures and blue prints of the north.

For Peace Celebration.

Albany, March 27.—The Nelson bill, designed to appropriate $20,000 for the celebration in February, 1915, of the hundred years of peace between Great Britain and the U.S., passed the assembly yesterday by a vote of 91 to 55.

WOMAN'S CONTENTION UPHELD IN A BREACH OF PROMISE ACTION

Saskatoon, March 27.—Mary Figaro, who, in 1912, secured damages for $5,000 against Jas. Pinkey, jr., for breach of marriage, yesterday sustained her case in the supreme court here before Judge Lamont that the execution obtained in 1912 should be valid against the property of the defendant's father, James Pinkey, sr., who, she held, had become the registered owner of the son's property for the express purpose of preventing the execution of her former judgment. Justice Lamont upheld her contention.

LIVE MUSKRATS ARE ON SHOW IN STORE WINDOW OF HILL DRUG COMPANY

Foxes, rabbits, puppies, birds and squirrels, all these have at different times been made the center of attraction in store window displays around the city, but it was left to the J. N. C. Hill Drug company, known as the Owl Drug company, First street, to furnish the latest acquisition to the annual exhibits in window display, this time in the form of two fully grown, live muskrats.

The little animals were caught at McKernan's lake on the south side and seem thoroughly to enjoy themselves in their new surroundings, splashing around in a large tank of water, and causing plenty of amusement for all passers by.

Temperance Field Day.

The Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform league is holding a field day for temperance, covering the electoral district of Wainwright. Services are to be held in all churches and mission stations, so far as they can possibly be arranged for on Sunday next. The following is the list of places and speakers for that occasion.

Wainwright: Rev. W. A. Smith, of Norwood Methodist church, Edmonton; Rev. W. F. Gold, general secretary of the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform league; and it is expected that Bishop Newnham of Saskatoon, who is to be present at Wainwright, will speak on temperance.

Jarrow, Rev. D. W. Pomeroy; Irma, Rev. J. W. Lacaille and a student from Alberta college. Heath, Rev. T. Marshall and Rev. Father Carpentier. Edgerton, Rev. C. R. Corcoran. Chauvin, Rev. A. Russell and Rev. J. W. Smiley.

On the Monday following, in the Methodist church at Wainwright, there will be a convention held, which is called for the purpose of organization of the entire electoral district, and giving effect to the plans and operations of the work of the league.

Claims $1,000 Damages

In the supreme court this morning, Benjamin Piggot has taken action against William H. Speer, a real estate agent of this city, to recover $1,000 damages for injuries received by him, when struck by an automobile driven by Speer, while crossing the low level bridge last January. The case is being heard before Justice Scott and will be concluded this afternoon.

In connection with the Reform club, a whist drive will take place in the Blue Moon tea rooms, Rice street, on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Tickets are 50c each, including refreshments, and may be had from H. P. Brown, 555 First street. There will be good prizes.

Committed for Trial.

Adolph Naske has been committed for trial for an offence he is alleged to have committed against his sister who is only 16 years old. The case was tried before a justice of the peace at Fort Saskatchewan.

LAUGHS WITH JOY! NO MORE INDIGESTION

Montreal Man so Ill, Thought He Would Die of Stomach Trouble.

Found a Simple Remedy That Has Kept Him Well Ever Since.

The experience of Mr. Larose is one very common today.

"I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for five years. I suffered so much that I could hardly attend to my work. I was weak and lost all courage. I enjoyed no rest until I decided to follow your treatment. To my great surprise I immediately began to feel better. I am now using the second box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and I feel so well that I want to tell you that I owe this great change to your famous pills. I recommend Dr. Hamilton's Pills to every person who is suffering from dyspepsia. Your grateful servant, D. R. Larose, 338 Joliette street, Montreal, P.Q.

All who have weak stomachs, and those who suffer with indigestion, headaches, billousness, can be perfectly cured by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c. per box, at druggists and storekeepers, or the Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Ont., and Buffalo, N.Y.

Cartoons Himself Free.

Sacramento, Calif., March 27.—Evan Burton Johnson, who pleaded guilty to passing a worthless check a year ago and was sentenced to four years, has cartooned his way from Folsom prison. His sentence has been commuted by Governor Johnson and he will be released Saturday.

Johnson, during his incarceration, has drawn more than 200 cartoons portraying his views of penal servitude and politics. Some of the most powerful of his sketches found their way to the governor's office.

McBride for Commissioner.

Victoria, March 27.—From a statement made by a prominent politician there is now no doubt that Sir Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia, can have the high commissionership of Canada for the asking.

DR. DYDE THINKS WORLD PEACE WILL SOON BE A FACT

The address of Rev. Dr. S. W. Dyde, principal of Robertson college, before the Edmonton Canadian club at the Empire auditorium this afternoon, on "Canada—a Look Backward and Forward"—was as broad as that great subject demanded, although Dr. Dyde modestly said that he was incapable of treating it fully.

He mentioned as regrettable the fact that "The Maple Leaf For Ever," as sung originally in Ontario, and now even in Alberta, was changed from the way it was written by Alexander Muir "from 'The lily, thistle,' shamrock, rose," to "the shamrock, thistle, rose entwine." He believed the original version was much better than that which had been generally adopted in Ontario because of the dominant race and religion there.

"None who read history, even cursorily," said Dr. Dyde, and those who take any interest in Canadian history can yet say that the question of the moulding of the races is finally settled and one homogeneous nation made, but no matter what language we speak or what race we spring from, that is what we will have to do—live together and think together."

Dr. Dyde then read extracts from speeches delivered in the early days of confederation by Thomas D'Arcy McGee, George E. Cartier and George Brown, an Irish Catholic, a French Catholic and a Scotch Protestant, respectively, all of whom believed that a great nation could be built in the northern half of North America, only through tolerance, appreciation and co-operation of the different elements making it up.

"I am for peace," he added, "and I believe that world peace will be a fact in the future. I believe that the finest mark of nationality is an acceptance of a wide responsibility, and we in Canada have yet to take the final step toward nationhood. It is, I believe, a matter of congratulation that both liberals and conservatives stand together on the question of taking this full responsibility, but I think the time has come when it has become acute, and when we should no longer rely for protection on either the taxpayer across the line and the Monroe doctrine, or on the taxpayer across the water.

"Fair play is at the bottom of true democracy, where everybody has an equal chance. I am reminded of the occasion when Abraham Lincoln addressed a regiment of Ohio soldiers returning from the war and told them that the war had been carried on so that no man could be slave to another. However, although that slavery was abolished, there are all kinds of slavery in existence today and we must set our faces resolutely against them all."

Eighteen Are Drowned

London, March 27.—Eighteen of the crew of the French steamer Saint Paul were drowned today. The steamer struck a rock and sank while entering the port of Brisbane, Australia, according to a Lloyds despatch. The Saint Paul was on the way from Noume to Sydney. She was a new 226 foot vessel, built in 1912, commanded by Captain Corne and owned by the Oceanic Navigation company of Bordeax.

WRITE STORIES FOR MOVING PICTURE PLAYS

New, Spare-time Profession for Men and Women—One Man Makes $3,500 in Six Months

Owing to the large number of new motion picture theaters which are being opened throughout the country, there is offered to the men and women of today a new profession, namely, that of writing moving picture plays. Producers are paying from $5 to $150 for each scenario accepted, upon which they can build a photo play.

$3,500 in Six Months

As it only requires a few hours' time to construct a complete play, you can readily see the immense possibilities in this work. One man, who gave the idea a tryout, writes that he earned $3,500 in six months. It is possible for an intelligent person to meet with equal success.

One feature of the business which should appeal to everyone, is that the work may be done at home in spare time. No literary ability is required, and women have as great an opportunity as men. Ideas for plots are constantly turning up, and may be put in scenario form and sold for a good price.

GENERAL VILLA SAYS HE IS IN POSSESSION OF GOMEZ PALACIO NOW

Constitutionalist Headquarters above Torreon, March 27.—General Villa and his rebel army, after four days' almost incessant fighting, during which victory seems first with one side and then with the other, occupied Gomez Palacio yesterday. Losses on both sides have been heavy.

The rebels delivered three assaults before permanent success was achieved and at times the battle extended into the lanes leading into Torreon proper. Villa predicts that he will have the latter city by Saturday or Sunday.

The Weather

Fine and cold weather has been general throughout the prairie provinces. Several degrees below zero reported at all places.

CAMBRIDGE WINS ATHLETIC CONTEST AGAINST OXFORD

London, March 27.—Cambridge university today won the annual athletic contest against Oxford University by six events to four. V. B. Havens, of Oxford, won the 120 yard hurdles in 17 1-5 seconds. Havens is from Rutgeon college, New Brunswick, N. J.

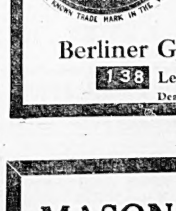

R. E. Atkinson, of Cambridge, easily won the half mile in 1 minute 56 2-5 seconds. This race has been expected to be the closest event of the day, but Atkinson had no trouble in defeating the American Rhodes scholar Norman S. Tabor, of Brown University by 1-2 yards.

THE BULLETIN'S MISREPRESENTATIONS WITH REGARD TO THE MONEY BYLAWS.

In the hope that it may create a panic in the minds of the ratepayers which will incite them to defeat the money bylaws, the Bulletin declares that the public are facing an expenditure this year on capital account (the whole of which must be made with borrowed money) of eight million dollars.

This statement is maliciously untrue and no one is better aware of its untruth than the Bulletin.

Of the four millions and a half of money bylaws which the ratepayers are asked to approve on April 6, the largest bylaw of them all does not propose to add one dollar to the expenditure upon capital account, but is for the purpose of providing a working capital.

The necessity for the provision of this working capital will be understood by all who gave attention to the difficulties into which last year's city administration fell in the effort to estimate the cost of work before the work itself was completed, and the subsequent difficulties which ensued when the attempt was made to apply these estimates in the tax levy.

The system which was attempted last year proposed to sell all debentures and to have the actual specific amounts of cash in hand and definitely charged to the specific work before the work was commenced. The failure of this system was that in no case did the estimates and the amounts thus raised correspond, and to straighten out the tangle which ensued in the assessor's office is a chore which is going to take many men many months of very hard work. Another year of this system would have placed the city's affairs in such a condition that the best auditors and actuaries in the country could not have unravelled the snarl.

Previous to last year, the system which was followed was to do the work first and make the levy afterward, making the levy according to the actual amount which the work had cost. In order to do this, however, it was necessary to rely upon the indulgence of some bank for a very large overdraft, a procedure which was costly and at all times dangerous, and which the Edmonton ratepayers who were here during the year when Major Griesbach attempted to guide the destinies of this fair city have reason to know did, on that occasion, lead the city into great difficulties. In that year the bank shut off the city's line of credit right in the middle of the biggest program of construction which had been undertaken up to that time, and left the city with its streets all torn up in every direction and no money with which to even restore them to a passable condition.

It is to avoid the possible recurrence of any such condition as was brought about during Major Griesbach's year, and to avoid the recurrence of any such tangle as ensued when ex-Mayor Short attempted to find a solution for this financial problem, that the working capital of two million dollars is being raised.

Out of this two million dollars' working capital the work of local improvements will be financed. When the work is completed, the actual cost figured and the debenture debt against the property affected is fixed, the amount will be restored to the working capital fund out of the proceeds of the sale of debentures floated against the local improvement. The procedure is the same as though the city had raised an overdraft in the bank, but in this case, instead of being depending upon any bank, the city is its own banker.

No part of this two million dollars, however, can be counted as addition to the capital expenditure, and the Bulletin's attempt to make up a total of eight million dollars by adding this two millions to the appropriations is simply malicious falsifying.

But this is by no means the limit of the Bulletin's misrepresentation in the matter of the bylaws.

In order to reach the eight million total which the Bulletin declares is the amount the city commissioners are going to squander this year, the Bulletin includes the bylaw for the city's portion of the 1913 paving. This bylaw is not to provide for an expenditure by this year's council, but to set right an injustice perpetrated by last year's council when it changed the system of charging for all improvements so that the entire cost was borne by the abutting property. This is the change which led to the mix-up over tax bills last year. The proposal is to now change back to the system which was in vogue before Mr. Short came into the city hall, which is to charge up 20 per cent. of the cost of improvements and the whole of the cost of intersections to general taxation. In order to do this it is necessary that a sum of $595,680 be shifted from local improvement tax to general tax, and every ratepayer who feels that he has been unjustly dealt with by the last year's system of taxation has the opportunity to vote on April 6 for the remedial bylaw which will put this matter right. Other bylaws the last year's expenditure for boulevarding and side-walk construction are being treated in the same way. In shifting this charge from local improvement to general tax, however, the city is not assuming a new debt of $595,680, as the Bulletin's total would appear to indicate, but is simply doing what the bylaw indicates is being done, shifting the charge.

Nor is this the limit of the misrepresentation which the Bulletin sees fit to indulge in.

In order to reach the eight million total which the Bulletin says the city council is squandering, it is necessary also to include the bylaw which proposes to provide for the deficit in the amount raised for the 1912 paving, a sum of $163,500.

This deficit was caused by bad figuring during the Armstrong year, when the money raised to pay for the tremendous paving program which was undertaken during that year was insufficient by the sum mentioned in the bylaw.

Had the Short administration of last year done its duty, this deficiency would have been made good by submitting, at the very earliest possible moment, a bylaw covering the deficiency. This, however, the Short administration failed to do, and it fell to this year's council to set right a matter which never should have come to its hands.

These three items, the capital account bylaw, the bylaw covering the city's share of the paving of 1913 and the bylaw providing for the deficiency in the 1912 paving cost, together total $2,859,166.67, not one cent of which is any part of this year's capital expenditure, but requires to be incorporated in the bylaws very largely to cover up faults and delinquencies of last year's council, which the Bulletin supported.

The total, therefore, which the city is to spend this year is not, as the Bulletin alleges, eight million dollars, but is nearly three millions less than that total, and the total is arrived at upon a basis of providing for the actual necessities. In fact, outside of the parks and playgrounds bylaws, it is scarcely possible that a single item in the million and a half of new work which the ratepayers are asked to authorize can be discovered which could be eliminated from the bylaws with safety to public health and public necessities.

All the time that the Bulletin is attempting to calumniate the council and commissioners it knows this well. But the Bulletin is not interesting itself in the good of the city or the ratepayers of the city. It is interested only in venting a personal spite of its proprietor against the individuals who happen to hold the responsible positions in the city at the present time, and if, by traitorous misrepresentations of the city's position, it can betray the ratepayers into the belief that they should deny themselves the commonest necessities of urban existence lest the city be brought to bankruptcy, it is quite willing to pursue this course, or any course, which will give effect to its venom by embarrassing those in office.

VOTE FOR THE PARKS AND PLAYGROUNDS BYLAWS

According to the plans of the parks and playgrounds bylaws which are to be voted on April 6, the old hospital grounds are to be the special center for the babies and young children of the community. Mothers will be seen with their work sitting on the benches under the trees, watching the children thoroughly enjoying themselves under the supervision of trained playground workers. Those who have visited supervised public playgrounds in the larger centers of population, will appreciate what this means to the city of Edmonton.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE

Little Old New York Begins Celebration of Tercentenary.

Little old New York—as such of the 7,383,871 inhabitants of the metropolitan district as can speak English or can speak at all delight to call it—will begin today the celebration of its 300th birthday. Today is the tercentenary of the granting of the first general charter by the States General of the United Netherlands for trading to New Netherland. The arrangements for the "public celebration of the 300th anniversary of the regularly chartered commerce of what is now the city and state of New York" were commenced about two years ago, and in December, 1912, the late Mayor Gaynor appointed a committee to carry the plans to completion, at the request of various commercial organizations of New York.

Religious exercises today will mark the inaugural of the tercentenary observance, which will continue to October 11, the 300th anniversary of the first special charter for Dutch trading to New Netherland. In April and May there will be exercises in the public schools and other institutions of learning, designed to familiarize the young with the history of the American metropolis and the Empire State. One of the aims of the tercentenary committee is to establish scholarships by which pupils may be exchanged between the commercial colleges of Europe and America.

All of the states of the Union will be asked to participate in the exhibitions of material resources to be held in New York during June, July and August. Leading museums and historical, commercial and technical societies will hold exhibitions. There will be parades and pageants in the later part of September. There will also be music festivals, naval and marine displays, illuminations, observance of the opening of the Panama canal, commemoration of the centenary of peace between the United States and Great Britain, in which prominent Englishmen and Canadians will be asked to participate, and other features to make New York's tercentenary year a memorable one. Other cities in New York will also hold celebrations on a smaller scale. On the whole, the celebration will be commercial in character, since New York's prosperity and greatness is due to its being the great commercial gateway to the New World.

In 1614 the future city of New York consisted of four rude huts occupying a site at what is now 41 Broadway. These were the only habitations of white men on Manhattan Island. The first ships trading to Manhattan were the Fortune and the Tiger, Amsterdam vessels brought over by Hendrick Christiansen and Adriaen Block. The Tiger was accidentally burned at Manhattan in 1613. Block then constructed the first vessel built of the island, the Onrust, of eighteen tons, which was launched near the Battery in the spring of 1614. In this tiny ship he passed Hell Gate and coasted along as far as Nahant Bay. In 1614 Christiaensen went up to the Hudson to Castle Island, below Albany, and built Fort Nassau, a trading house 36 by 26 feet, in a stockade 58 feet square, with a moat 18 feet in width. In October, 16146, the Dutch States-General gave the name of New Netherland to the country around Manhattan Island, and granted its trade by special charter to Amsterdam merchants. Christiaensen was killed by Indians in 1616. In 1623 thirty families of French Protestant refugees arrived, twenty-two families settling on Long Island, at the Wallabout, Brooklyn, and the remainder near Fort Orange. Three years later Peter Minuit arrived and completed that famous deal by which Manhattan Island, "rocky and full of trees," was ceded by the Indians to the Dutch for 24 worth of trinkets.

The Kaibab and the Coconino national forests adjoin each other. Yet it takes from two to three days to go from one to the other across the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

IS YOUR CHILD'S TONGUE COATED?

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative;" they love its delicious taste and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Banker Baker, 74 Today, Has $2,500,000 For Each Annum.

Industry, frugality and temperance, so all wealthy men tell us, are the stepping stones to success, and, such being the case, George Fisher Baker is undoubtedly one of the most industrious, frugal and temperate of men. The great New York banker and financier was born in Troy, N. Y., March 27, 1840, and today, at the beginning of his seventy-fifth year on earth, the fruits of his industry, frugality and temperance are estimated at between $175,000,000 and $200,000,000 in solid cash and A1 securities. Mr. Baker's holdings cannot be stated with accuracy, as he informed a committee of congressional probers that the public had no more right to inquire into his bank accounts than to inspect his tailor's bills. Besides being the chairman of the board of directors of the First National Bank of New York—an institution which made $86,000,000 on a capital of $500,000—the Trojan financier is heavily interested in some three-score big transportation, industrial and financial corporations, and head of the investment concern called the First Securities company. He has been one of the leaders of the interlocking directorate system by which the wealth and industries of the republic were placed so largely under the direction of a small group of men, including Baker, Morgan, Stillman and William Rockefeller.

Mr. Baker recently announced his intention of quitting as many directorates as would permit him to do so. He has held more directorships in powerful corporations than any other man in American finance. He has been influential in the conduct of 24 railway systems, nine giant banks and trust companies, the steel trust, the Pullman company, the telephone corporation, and various public utility corporations.

Mr. Baker was a youth when he arrived in New York to win fame and fortune, with industry, frugality and temperance as his assets. He entered the employ of the First National Bank and worked his way up to the post of cashier. There he looked after a vast amount of money, but little of his own. There opportunity, in the disguise of misfortune, approached him and found the young cashier waiting with a club.

Cashier Baker had approved the purchase for a bunch of London drafts of Jay Cooke and company. Almost immediately the Cooke concern failed. At that moment the casual observer would not have considered Mr. Baker's financial future, nor even his change of holding a job, very rosy. But the cashier was not alarmed. He went to the president of the bank, John Thompson, who had not heard that his institution was affected by the Cooke crash, and offered to buy the bank. Baker had only a few hundred dollars saved from his salary, industry, frugality and temperance—and, one must believe, nerve. He persuaded Mr. Thompson that he was too old to continue the management of the bank, and that, as a successor, a young fellow by the name of Baker was just the man. The venerable president was so impressed by Baker's industry, frugality and temperance that he gave him an option for six months and before that period had expired New York financiers were fighting for a chance to invest money with the young cashier who had approved a bad credit and bought a bank to save himself!

TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY

Two treaties affecting Canada were concluded on the twenty-seventh of March. By the treaty of St. Germain-en-Laye, March 27, 1632, England abandoned all claims to Canadian territory and the whole of New France, Acadie and Cape Breton were restored to the French. England and France had been at war since 1627. As a result of this conflict, supplies were cut off from the little French colony in the New World, and the unfortunate settlers were living on roots when, in 1629, Admiral Kirke sailed up the St. Lawrence and made an easy conquest of Quebec. The town and all Canada thus was restored, Champlain was returned to his post, and peace and comparative prosperity gladdened the hearts of the people. The treaty of Amiens, concluded on March 27, 1802, ended the war between England and France which had been waged since 1793. While this war did not directly affect British America, the people of Nova Scotia and St. John (afterward Prince Edward) Island were kept in a constant state of fear of a French invasion, and they breathed a great sigh of relief when the treaty was signed. The peace was brief, however, for a little over a year later England began that war against Napoleon which did not end until the defeat of the Corsican at Waterloo. One of the fruits of this conflict was the second war between Great Britain and the United States, in which Canada and Canadians were so vitally interested.

March 27 is the anniversary of the birth of William Arthur Elliott, educator, at Hillier, Ont., 1866, and of the Rev. Charles H. Stewart, noted Presbyterian divine, at Owen Sound, Ont., 1875.

THINKERS URGE RADICAL CHANGES IN PARLIAMENTS

Declare Representative Government Decaying in Europe.

NOVEL CURES FOR ILLS ARE BEING DISCUSSED

One is to Divide Functions Making Separate Bodies Control Them.

Berlin, March 27.—In representative government doomed? That question otherwise put in the phrase, "crisis of minds and pens of Europe" is agitating thinkers. It is a live question everywhere, and particularly live in states like Austria-Hungary, where the inherent defects of the parliamentary system are aggravated and complicated by race-rivalry.

Parliaments Are Congested.

No observer of European domestic politics denies that the reputation of parliament has fallen badly; and that it has fallen lowest in the countries where parliaments have unchallenged power. Those parliaments are congested, have forfeited public respect. They ed, unproductive, and unbusinesslike is admitted by themselves. But worse accusations are made. Parliaments have ceased to represent nations and to legislate on great affairs, and have degenerated into machines for producing deals and compromises between the pocket interests of rival economic interests. Membership of parliament has become a salaried profession. The old confidential relations between voters and representatives has disappeared. Both sides are guilty. The public is guilty in that it either ignores politics altogether, or treats it as a sport; and in either case neglects to keep a proper watch upon its members and on parliament as a whole. The representatives are guilty in that they do not work in the interests of the electors and of the public as a whole; and that long process of public indifference by their low standards of talent and honesty.

The result is a condition which the German Koelnische Zeitung calls "Parliamentarismus Mudigkeit"—that is, exhaustion and disillusion with the present prevailing forms of representative government. No European state is free. In Britain, whose parliamentary system was for centuries the envy of Europe, "Parliamentarismus Mudigkeit" is the daily topic of the press. In France "Parliament exhaustion" is more genuine. The working class is "exhausted" with parliament. The German complaint is not that the reichstag will do nothing, but that it can do nothing. Hungary's diet has done practically no work for years. It has developed into a mere arena for prize-fighters and even a stage for attempts at assassination. Austria's parliament is only a little more decorous, and no more fruitful. Russia has had representative government for eight years, and its plight is, on the admission of practically every non-official Russian of any party, worse than under the autocracy.

The question is handled by the brilliant, Austrian Reichsrat deputy, Ernst Viktor Zenker. He complains that parliaments have ceased to fulfill any of their ostensible functions. Zenker denies that the many-party system is the cause of all ill; he holds that many-party legislatures like Germany's are more likely to pass fair laws than two-party legislatures like England's and America's.

Zenker stands for the referendum on all great law projects. But the referendum is not enough. The elector must not only control projected bills; he must also control his representative. This can be done partly by shortening the present term for which parliaments are elected, and partly by embodying in constitutions the provision that a deputy mandate is revocable.

Zenker declares reform must be in the direction not only of limiting parliamentary power, but also of limiting parliamentary functions. Confusion, unfruitfulness, and corruption are caused by the fact that one and the same parliament regulates political questions which often involve merely pocket conflicts between individuals and classes.

Zenker proposes a radical differentiation of functions. Two chambers should remain but they should be elected on different principles, and should have different and independent functions. The first chamber should deal alone with high political matters and national finance; the second chamber should regulate the economical differences of the various classes.

Zenker's plan would mean radical changes, but radical changes of this kind are in sight. In Belgium the movement for a "representation des interests" independent of politics, grows stronger every day. The differentiation of functions between two chambers was recognized by the British parliament act when it finally deprived the house of lords of its budget power.

CONFLICTING REPORTS LEAVE BATTLE SITUATION MATTER OF CONJECTURE

Els Paso, Texas, March 27.—Conflicting reports leave the situation at Gomez Palacio and Torreon a matter of conjecture.

General Villa telegraphed to Manuel Chao, at Juarez, that he had been in possession of Gomez Palacio since yesterday morning, and predicted that the rebels would have Torreon not later than Saturday night. On the other hand, Miguel Diebold, of Huerta's consular service, exhibited telegrams declaring that the rebels had been repulsed at all points.

A REAL NERVE AND BODY-BUILDING MEDICINE

We believe Olive Oil Emulsion is the best remedy made for toning the nerves, enriching the blood, building strength and energy—the best medicine you can use if you are run-down, tired-out nervous and debilitated, no matter what the cause. It doesn't depend for its good effect upon alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. It may not make you feel better in a few hours, but it will make you feel better, we are sure, just as soon as the tonic and food properties it contains have a chance to get into the blood and, through the blood, into the rest of the system. Pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites have long been endorsed by successful physicians, but here, for the first time, they are combined into one preparation which, as a nerve-food and a builder of strength and health, we believe, has no equal.

If you don't feel well, begin taking Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion today, and build your health and strengthen your system against more serious illness. To convalescents, old people, puny children and all others who are weak, run-down or ailing, we offer Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion with our personal promise that, if it doesn't make you well and strong again, it will cost you nothing. If we didn't have the utmost faith in it, we wouldn't offer it with this guarantee, nor even recommend it to you. We are sure that once you have used it you will recommend it to your friends, and thank us for having recommended it to you. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us, $1.00.

Thought She Would Go Mad WITH HEADACHE.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time. Headache powders just relieve for the time being, but what is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Althea Bowman, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered terribly with my head for weeks at a time till I thought I would go mad. A friend advised me to give Burdock Blood Bitters a trial, so I got a bottle and found relief. I have used four bottles in all and I am glad to say that I have had no more headaches since. I would advise all sufferers to give it a fair trial."

KNIGHTS TO TILT AT SPRING SHOW

Added Attraction of Military Tournament Will Please Fair Sex.

IS A CROWNING FEATURE

Musical Ride By R.N.W.M.P. is Event Looked Forward to.

With the merchants of Edmonton vieing in making their windows beautiful for the Horse Show week, the militia co-operating with the directors in making the program doubly attractive, and the management straining every effort to insure the perfect presentation of the program, it is not to be wondered that the women of Edmonton are all agog with excitement these days. April 7th is all too near for some, and all too far away for others.

Now that military co-operation is an assured fact, the crowning feature has been added to the attractiveness of the Horse Show. Military tournaments have always breathed fascination for women, representing as they do a combination of romance, bravery and skill. To say the least of it, there is something radically wrong with the heart which fails to respond to the bugle call and the appearance of the mounted troops.

Real lovers of the horse will be entertained by the competitions of the various classes whether personally interested or not; the manoeuvres of the cavalry and the R.N.W.M.P. will appeal to every one, and form an attraction in themselves, worthy of the applause of every spectator.

The enthusiasm which greeted the military tattoo at the exhibition, when hundreds of people stood in the drenching rain to cheer the different brigades, will be repeated with the advent of the Musical Ride, and the first performance of the R.N.W.M.P. will fill the arena for each subsequent presentation.

Peace centenaries may come, and peace centenaries may go, but soldiers are wanted to present an attractive appearance, as well as to show a brave spirit in the face of danger. Evidence will also be given that they are disciplined and trained to meet any emergency which may arise. Therefore, the Exhibition association may depend on the support of the women of Edmonton, in many of whom the appearance of the militia will arouse some reminiscence of times when military protection meant more than mere words. Time passes rapidly, yet it is not so long since the R.N.W.M.P. was sole representative of law and order in the north west, or since the Strathcona Horse journeyed to South Africa and fought for the honor of the empire.

LADIES PETITION LOCAL RETAILERS TO CLOSE ON SATURDAYS EARLIER

A general meeting of the Local Council of Women was held in the Y.W.C.A. club room yesterday with John Gillespie in the chair.

With a view to secure early closing on Saturday evening the following petition will be submitted to Edmonton women for signature and presented to the Retail Merchants association of the city by the local council of women.

"We, the undersigned women being housekeepers of the city of Edmonton, agree not to do shopping in person after 6 o'clock on Saturday evening, and not to send to stores by letter or telephone or messenger after the above named hour with the object to secure closing at 9 o'clock on Saturday evening."

Mrs. Bryce Saunders and Mrs. Daniel Davies were appointed members of the vigilance committee to act in conjunction with the Travellers' Aid of the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. Arthur Murphy was appointed national convenor of the peace and arbitration committee; Mrs. Broadus, and Mrs. Gillespie were chosen delegates to the Canadian Peace Centenary association.

A list of the nomination of officers for the national council was submitted, the women's council supporting the standing names.

Mr. Chadwick's proposed playground scheme for the city of Edmonton presented by Mr. Chadwick, superintendent for dependent and delinquent children, was endorsed.

The following resolution, drafted by the Ke-O-Me chapter I. O.D.E. and sent out to the different societies, was defeated:

"That the amendment be made to bylaws of local council by which annual reports of officers of local council and convenors of standing committees may be approved by small executive consisting of three officers and convenors before being presented at the general meeting."

When the question arose of appointment of members to the two committees, nursing and household economics, of the national council it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the executive.

The report to the effect that a certain chapter of the Daughters of the Empire had secured funds by gambling for the Y.W.C.A. was definitely shown to be erroneous. The situation was this, that a group of women, not yet officially I.O.D.E. not understanding the nature of "roulette" planned to raise money in this way for the gymnasium of the new Y.W.C.A. As soon as appraised of the fact the Y.W.C.A. management stopped the procedure.

Mrs. Daniel Davis, convenor of committee of Equal Standard of Morals, read an encouraging report showing effective work done along these lines.

Mr. W. C. Stevens, of the Western Baptist union, delivered a most interesting talk, chosing as its subject "Am I my sisters Keeper."

ROSHANARA'S INDIAN DANCES FEATURE OF GOOD ORPHEUM BILL

Roshanara, the East Indian dancer who comes to the Empire theater the first half of next week as one of the headliners of the Orpheum vaudeville bill, has come to America with the critical endorsement of many foreign experts. She is generally conceded to be the only authentic exponent of the dances of the Far East. Endowed with a superabundance of grace, she was well fitted to absorb the customs of India, where her father was, and still is, a prominent officer in the service.

Roshanara's performance is marked by keen sincerity and a powerful technique, and she presents these Eastern dances without the slightest trace of suggestiveness. Roshanara divides her program into three parts.

Her first dance is the incense dance, in which she portrays the action of a young widow dedicating herself to a temple by bathing herself in the purifying incense, and so thoroughly does the dancer enter into the spirit of her subject that it is difficult to realize that she is not herself a native of the country whose art she so wonderfully depicts.

The second dance is the village dance, and is in a much lighter vein. In this she shows the life and customs of the folk in the most delicious bit of pantomime imaginable.

The snake dance, with which Roshanara concludes her performance, is, however, her masterpiece. Drab curtains are drawn and from between their center folds there appears a snow-white hand, with bound-tipped fingers held to represent the head of a serpent, the illusion being intensified by two rings to represent the eyes of the reptile. The second hand follows in the same attitude and then comes the sinuous dancer dressed in eastern garb of purple and gold. She holds her hands to form serpents as she dances, and imitates her movements, gracefully reminiscent of halls of mosaic and jewels, lying full length on the stage with the serpent hands held along the ground in front of her. The dance is mystical and has undoubted fascination.

"GIRL IN THE TAXI" MIRTH PROVOKING LYCEUM OFFERING

In the offering at the Lyceum theater next week, Manager Dunmond has a laugh-provoking success of two continents in the shape of "The Girl in the Taxi," which has to do with the adventures of an elderly man who poses at home as a model father and husband, but who indulges to excess in the merry pastime of "playing the cafes" when he is not in his own home. "The Girl in the Taxi," is built along strictly laugh lines, and the interpretation of it at the Lyceum next week is expected to be deserving of considerable worthy comment.

A few of the comments on this unusual and hilarious offering include the following:

"The Girl in the Taxi' brings many laughs. The play is really very funny." New York Mail.

"The Girl in the Taxi' is a lot of fun." New York Journal of Commerce.

"The Girl in the Taxi,' is full of laughs. There isn't a slow moment in the whole evening." Boston Globe.

OPERATTA WHICH TOOK NEW YORK BY STORM AT PANTAGES

Tuneful lyrics, sparkling dialogue coupled with a plot of more than average consistency made "The Soul Kiss," the signal success which it was. There has been perhaps no other opera written in America within the past decade which has aroused such enthusiasm on the first night as did this one. The scenery was perfect, every detail having been given careful attention. From the standpoint of acting no opera running at the time in New York boasted such a cast and as for music it was of the kind that reiterated itself through the brain for days afterwards. In fact the opera was a hit from the first night. The tabloid offering has also proved to be just as great a success as was the longer play and when it is produced at Pantages next week the patrons of the theater will have a chance to judge of the merits and de-merits of the piece.

Joseph Remington and company will present a delightful sketch entitled "The Millinery Salesman," which is filled with clean, attractive comedy of the kind that never fails to please.

The musical end of the bill will be attended to by Skipper Kennedy and Reeves who purvey a distinctive line of pattern and songs while Scott and Wallace offer a dainty dancing number.

The greatest of all foot jugglers "The Wartenburg Brothers" will have a place on the bill, and demonstrate the difficult art of handling various objects with the pedal extremities.

Wives Seeking Husbands.

Toronto, March 27.—More than 150 letters have been received by the morality department of Toronto within two weeks, from women in the British Isles, stating that their husbands had deserted them, and asking to have them located. Not all of these are supposed to be in Toronto, however.

ECZEMA ON FACE, SCALP AND HANDS

Came Off in Scales. Itched Badly, Had to Tie Hands. Little Watery Pimples. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

1307 Davenport Road, Toronto, Ont.—"My eczema first started when I was a baby, on my face and scalp. It seemed dry and when I scratched it, it came off in scales. It itched very badly and I was obliged to have my hands tied up so as to prevent scratching my face. Little white watery pimples came on my hands and face and I had to stay home from school for nearly two weeks. It caused my face and hands to look badly. The eczema took a very bad form, appearing on my face in little watery ulcers so bad that I could hardly bear to be touched. My hair being naturally very thick I found to be getting thinner and wondered what could cause it to fall out.

"My mother tried ——— and ——— and spent no end of money trying to get me better but it did no good. At last a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment and my mother used them. We applied the Cuticura Ointment to my face, head and hands and washed with the Cuticura Soap and the eczema began to disappear. Before six months had passed I was completely cured." (Signed) Miss Constance Jane, May 26, 1913.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and failing hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails, that it is almost criminal not to use them. A single set is often sufficient. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 32-p. book, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

JAPANESE ACTRESS FIGURES IN FEATURE OFFERING AT BIJOU

A beautiful and heart touching Japanese love story is told on the screen in the feature film at the Bijou photo-play theater for today and tomorrow's program. The theme, settings and acting, too, are unusual, and if nothing else, will appeal for their novelty. Worthy of particular mention is the fact that three of the players are themselves Japanese. The film is entitled "O Mimi San," and the title role is played by Miss Tsuru Aoki, who is now appearing as a star in the biggest attractions of the Mutual Film corporation's products. Miss Aoki is a wonderfully talented Japanese actress, highly cultured and most admirably adapted, of course, in plays dealing with Japanese characters. She is most charming, and is fast becoming a great favorite.

The scenes of the story are laid in Japan during the last revolution in the late '60's. The emperor is growing old and infirm. He has two sons, Yorotomo, the eldest, who will succeed to the throne. He realizes the Japanese people would never permit him to ascend the throne himself, and he casts about for a dummy to occupy it. The Shogun calls upon the younger prince and unfolds his plan to kill the elder brother. Togowawa enters into the conspiracy and promises to aid the Shogun. The conspirators are overheard by a spy of the emperor, who reports the plot. Yorotomo is sent away in disguise. During his sojourn he falls in love with O Mimi San, daughter of the gardener of the summer cottage of the Mikado, who does not know that Yorotomo is a prince. The Mikado dies and Yorotomo is called to take the throne, and he is compelled to leave O Mimi San and marry Saiu San.

Pathes' Foreign Gazette will exhibit quite a number of very interesting current events of news items happening in the old country recently.

EMPRESS FEATURE "ANTIQUE BROOCH" PLAYED IN ENGLAND

Produced in England, "The Antique Brooch," a recent Edison feature motion picture production, comes to Edmonton for today and tomorrow as the attraction for the Empress program. This film has a number of notable qualities, for it was not only produced on the British Isle, but the leading character is portrayed by Marc MacDermott, one of the most talented and capable moving picture players of today. Mr. MacDermott is another of those picture artists who possesses an extraordinary fine "motion picture face, and his style of acting has earned for him one of the highest names in the film world.

Jack Morley had never allowed financial matters or anything else to worry him very much, until one unfortunate morning when a curt letter from his uncle informed him not only that his allowance would be discontinued, but that he would be cut off with a shilling in his uncle's will as well, unless a speedy change was noticeable in his habits. Filled with a healthy spirit of remorse, Morley went out to a week-end at Shirley Towers to ponder over this latest development in his affairs. At Shirley Towers, Morley ran across an old acquaintance in the person of Veronica Shirley, a niece of Lord Shirley's. Veronica and Morley had played together as children, and a very few moments of conversation served to put them back on their old terms of cheerful friendship. Morley learned that Veronica's father had died, and that the young girl was at her wits' end to meet the numerous debts he had left.

That evening Lord Shirley showed the company a wonderfully valuable brooch he had purchased some time before at an auction sale. Later that evening Lord Shirley curtly refused to help Veronica with her father's debts. Still later, Veronica coming downstairs to find a missing glove, saw a screen moved quickly across the drawing room to the door, screening the identity of some unknown person behind it. When the family and guests rushed into the room after her scream of alarm, it was found that the safe had been opened and the brooch stolen. On the strength of circumstantial evidence Veronica was accused of the theft. Morley, convinced of her guilt, none the less sacrificed himself to save her. He admitted that he had stolen the brooch and promised to get it back from the confederate outside the house to whom, he said, he had given it.

As a matter of fact there had been somebody looking outside the house at the time of the robbery. Big Dan had come up from London with the sole purpose of stealing the famous brooch. Through the window he had seen the mysterious person behind the screen. The mystery was cleared up next day on the railroad train, after an exciting fight between Morley and Big Dan had culminated in the later falling from the train. It is enough to say that neither Veronica nor Morley were implicated that we leave them with every assurance of a happy future.

The pursuit of Big Dan along the outside of the speeding train, in which both men crawl along the narrow footboard, is one of the most thrilling scenes that has been flashed on the screen.

Pictures as this are crowding the beautiful Empress and deservedly so.

GARLAND FEATURE GRIPPING STORY OF A SUNKEN TREASURE

"The Sunken Treasure," the feature at the Garland theater, is one of most gripping dramatic stories ever seen in a local photo-play house. George and Peter are two divers engaged by the same firm, under Mr. Barry, the contractor, to seek for buried treasure underneath the sea. They are both in love with Mr. Barry's daughter, Louise, but she openly prefers George, and thus rouses the bitterest feelings in the heart of Peter who swears that if he cannot have Louis he will remove George from his path.

One day he watches George out of the way and then enters the cottage where Louise is alone and declares his love. She is terrified and refusing him declares her preference for George. Maddened by her rejection he attempts to seize her in his arms, when George returns, rescues his girl, and attempts to chastise Peter. In the midst of the tumult Mr. Barry enters, orders Peter from his house, and discharges him from the staff. This rouses all that is bad in Peter, and he now lives only for revenge. He hears that Mr. Barry has contracted to recover a quantity of bullion known to have gone down in a vessel, and that George has been chosen for the work. He secures a confederate and when George goes down under the sea in his diving dress, Peter swims out and cuts the air tube, thus leaving George helpless at the bottom of the sea. Some fine scenes show George's rescue from his perilous position by a champion diver, and his being taken ashore in a helpless condition by Mr. Barry. As soon as the coast is clear, Peter makes his way to the vessel over the buried bullion and, representing that he is sent by Mr. Barry, is allowed to go down in search of the treasure. He finds it and with the aid of his confederate manages to make off with it in a motor boat. George recovers, and with Mr. Barry is returning to resume his diving operations as Peter is making off. Quickly divining that he has secured the treasure, they go after him and a stern chase in motor boats ends in Peter escaping an ahiding with his treasure in a little cottage buried in the wood. A woodsman sees Peter enter and watches him place the treasure into bags, assisted by an old woman. He at once hurries off and tells George, who, with a posse of police, is soon on the spot, but Peter has flown. The old woman is frightened into telling that Peter has gone by train.

The pursuers arrive at the station as the train is leaving and follow it by motor, both arriving at the destination together. Again Peter manages to elude his pursuers and board a vessel. George and the police once more get on his track, and Peter for safety, goes down into the hold of the vessel, where gunpowder is stored, and in firing a revolver ignites the gunpowder and the vessel is blown up, showing a terrific scene of a shipwreck at sea. The treasure has been previously recovered and conveyed to a place of safety. Peter loses his life in the explosion. Mr. Barry receives his reward in the recovery of the treasure, and George and Louise are made happy.

Amidst impressive ceremonies and in the presence of hundreds of thousands of people, a superb monument dedicated to the heroes sent to destruction when the P.S.S. Maine was blown up in Havana Harbor, February, 1898, was recently unveiled at Central Park, New York city. This extraordinary feature gives a splendid view of the proceedings, which included a parade in which the army and navy participated and the unveiling of the beautiful monument. It will hold the interest of the photo-play patrons from beginning to end.

SURPRISING SUM IS INVESTED IN ALBERTA MINES

Estimated That Capitalists Have Sunk $150,000,000 in Coal.

It is estimated, from figures supplied by the annual report of the coal mines branch of the department of the department of public works, that over $150,000,000 is invested in coal mines in Alberta, quite a respectable sum for a country primarily agricultural. There are 289 companies operating in the province, and 39 of the larger ones have a combined capitalization of $107,000,000. This does not include the C.P.R. mines at Bankhead and Lethbridge.

The largest company in the province is the Canadian Coal and Coke company, limited, which owns the Western colliery at Beaver Mines, the Lethbridge colliery at Coalhurst, the Pacific Pass colliery at Bickerdike and the St. Albert colliery at St. Albert. These four are capitalized at $15,000,000 each.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again. As soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent. Only the other day Mr. Marsh, of 101 Delorimier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty-five years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. Today—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp (to pay return postage). Address Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

The junior and senior hexathlon contests will take place on April 11, in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The "Y" boys this year expect to make a good showing and win some of the championships. The events will be as follows:

Senior events for all over 18 years:
60 yard potato race.
220 yards potato race.
Running broad jump.
Standing broad jump.
12 pound shot put.

Junior events for boys under 18 years:
60 yards potato race
160 yards potato race.
Running high jump.
Standing broad jump.
Eight pound shot put.
Fence vault.

A practice will be held tonight in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium between 7 and 8 p.m.

CANADIAN GIRL WINS GOLF TITLE SOUTHERN STATES

Pinehurst, N.C., March 27.—Playing brilliant golf, Miss Florence L. Harvey, of the Hamilton, Ont., Golf club yesterday won the trophy for the women's event of the annual united north and south golf tournament here, and defeated Miss R. M. Barlow of the Merion Cricket club, Philadelphia, one up in 18 holes.

MOOSE JAW HOCKEY CHAMPIONSHIP IS DECIDED THIS WEEK

Moose Jaw, March 27.—In the first of two games to decide the hockey championship of the city, the Robin Hoods last night defeated the Moose by 8 to 7. The ice was keen and a good crowd treated to a fast exhibition of six-man hockey. The Millers led at half time by 5-2. The second game will be played on Monday, total goals scored counting on the round.

LESTER PATRICK WANTS DICK IRVIN IN COAST LEAGUE

Will Offer Gold-lined Contract to Play Hockey at Coast.

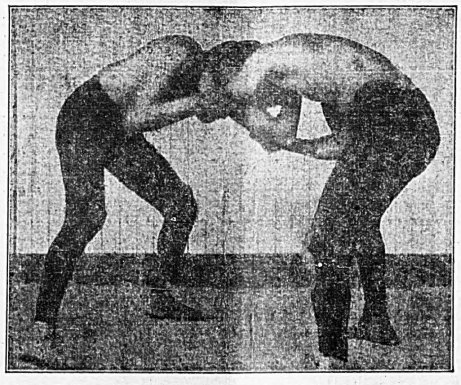

Toronto, March 27.—The winning Monarchs will be back in Winnipeg on Monday or Tuesday. A day or two may be spent in Chicago but no hockey will be played. The tie of one game apiece for the Pellatt cup will remain, with the Toronto R. and A. A. holding the cup for the first six months and the Monarchs for the latter half.

Lester Patrick, coast professional hockey magnate is after Dick Irvin, the Monarch center, who netted the nine goals against the Torontos on Wednesday and intimated that a gold lined contract would be waiting for him next fall.

Irvin is said to have been non-committal as to the offer.

The lighthouse reservations on the great lakes are able to grow all the white cedar needed for spar buoys in their district.

ALBERTA WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIPS TONIGHT.

Above are shown C. W. Baird and "Doc" Haynes, two Y.M.C.A. wrestlers who will compete in the wrestling championships tonight at the Y.M.C.A. Baird is entered in the 135-pound class and "Doc" Haynes is expected to compete in the 145-pound bouts. There are a large number of entries in all weights on the program tonight.

ALBERTA WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIPS TONIGHT AT Y.M.C.A.

Twenty Entries Will Furnish Many Fast and Exciting Bouts—Wrestlers Here From Calgary, Lethbridge and Lloydminster. —First Bout at 8 O'Clock.

With 20 entries and these well divided among the different weights, the Alberta wrestling championship at the Y. M. C. A. tonight promises to be the greatest attraction of its kind ever held in the province.

There are wrestlers here from Calgary, Lethbridge and Lloydminster, who along with a large list of University and Y. M. C. A. entries should furnish a very complete and interesting program of sport on the mat. This is the first time the championships have ever been held in Edmonton, and should be given the support of all wrestling enthusiasts in the city.

The plan of seats is open at the Y. M. C. A. and the general admission is 25 cents. There are also reserved and ring side seats at 50c and 75c. A great deal of hard work has been indulged in by the local athletes in preparation for these events and they are in high hopes of carrying off a majority of the winner's prizes. Two of Calgary's best wrestlers are entered for the 135 and 158 pound class, a Lethbridge entry in the 115 pound class has been received, and a welter weight from Lloydminster will also be on hand to show his class.

Following is a complete list of entries to date:

Heavyweight—E. J. Van Petten; W. H. Smith.

158 pounds—McLaren, Calgary; M. E. Tiffin, C. Maddison, J. Cox, C. G. Markle, Paul Lewis.

145 pounds—J. White, M. Fishburne.

135 pounds—H. A. McCormick, C. W. Baird; J. S. Glen, H. Milner, A. A. Dower.

125 pounds—A. A. Dower.

115 pounds—C. Dunham, F. Worcester, Max Sabowski.

Entries may be made to J. W. G. Legan at the Y. M. C. A. The entrance fee is $1.00 for each event. It is expected that George R. Jackson will act as referee. The first bout will commence at 8 o'clock, at which time all wrestlers will be required to weigh-in. Bouts will be of six minutes duration, and gold and silver medals will be awarded to the winners of first and second place.

DR. REID'S DOG WINS HIGH HONORS AT MOOSE JAW

Dr. Reid of Edmonton won the Empress Hotel trophy with his Russian wolf hound, Ch. Genest of Rossean. The Calgary Brewing cup for the best Scotch terrier was won outside and goes back to Calgary. Ch. Aberlay Emmigrant, owned by G. A. Hull of Calgary and shown by W. Samson, took the cup, as he did last year.

The show just concluded was the most successful one in the history of Saskatchewan.

KNOCKING OVER THE 10 PINS AT OLYMPIC ALLEYS

Wanderers Lost Two Out of Three to Capitals—Tournament Arranged.

The last game of the present schedule in the Olympic bowling league was played last night between the Wanderers and the Capitals. The Capitals dropped but one game to their opponents, and the result of the games made no difference to the league standing of any of the teams.

There were few real scores, only one getting over the 500 mark, Jimmie Blouin rolling 520 for three games. Following are the scores and league standing:

Capitals—
Williscroft	121	156	166—	443
Mohr	156	168	157—	481
Stark	124	168	152—	454

The local bowlers decided to put on a bowling tournament next month, and will invite tournament next month, and Prizes of merchandise will be given. A meeting of all bowlers in the Olympic league is called for Sunday at 3 o'clock when the dates of the tournament will be arranged and the play-off games between the Eskimos and Albertas will also be fixed.

Boost the Lacrosse Game.

Commenting upon Joe Lally's visit to the west in an endeavor to boost the Canadian national game, lacrosse, a Calgary sport scribe cannot overlook the fact that Lally is in the lacrosse-stick manufacturing business, and goes on to say that this fact "takes some of the nobleness away from his patriotic coast to coast tour," and cannot overlook what he terms the "apparent selfishness" of Mr. Lally.

The Calgary man's comment is hardly consistent with the business he is engaged in, that of writing sport, as the same Joe Lally has done considerable to boost the lacrosse game in Canada, and should be encouraged in his effort, to establish the game in the western provinces, even if he does sell lacrosse sticks. Prospects for the lacrosse game in Edmonton this summer are bright, indeed, and a three-team senior league is assured, to say nothing of the scores of school and employed boys who are anxiously waiting the arrival of Joe Lally to give the game the boost that is needed.

THE WINNING TEAM THAT WAS.

(By E. C. Marks.)

Oh, Where is our winning team tonight,
The team of our tenderest care,
The Colts that thought they were just about right,
But High School gave them a scare.

They're whining yet at the defeat they got,
Excuses galore are theirs,
They're a real live basketball team—they're NOT,
The High School gave them—their's.

NEW SPORTING GOODS STORE.

Joseph Driscoll and Hugh McGill, both well known sport enthusiasts, have opened their new sporting goods store at 612 Second street, under the firm name of McGill & Driscoll. Both these gentlemen have been in Edmonton close on to ten years and need no introduction to the young sporting element of the city, and will no doubt cater to a fair share of their trade.

A pleasing factor in connection with the new store is that they carry a full and complete line of Spaulding's sporting goods, a brand of goods which is always in demand, but up to the present unable to procure in this city, or in fact in any city west of Winnipeg. They also sell the Foster sprinting shoe, which is one of the best on the market. Savage, Winchester, Remington and Colt's guns and rifles help to complete one of the finest and most up-to-date stocks of sporting goods in the city.

BUFFALO BOWLING CLOSES WITH SOME VERY HIGH SCORES

Buffalo, March 27.—The fourteenth annual bowling tournament of the American Bowling congress ended yesterday. The winners of the three main events were:

Five man teams: Monko club, New Haven; two man, T. D. Negley and D. H. Vanness, Newark, N. J.; individual, Wm. Miller of Detroit.

In addition to capturing the individual honors, Miller made a total for nine games of 1,711. His score in the singles brought him $200 and a gold medal and the all-events $100 more.

COBB ASKED TO MAKE ADDRESS TO SENATORS

Jackson, Miss., March 27.—The Mississipi house of representatives yesterday passed a resolution expressing regret that rain prevented the baseball game between the Detroit and New Orleans teams and extended the privileges on the floor to the members of the two teams. In addition, Ty Cobb was invited to address the house. Earlier in the week, the house voted to adjourn because of the expected game.

LOU NORDYKE

Lou Nordyke, the new playing-manager of the Edmonton baseball club is now at Everett, Washington, awaiting the arrival of the Edmonton squad, who left today for the spring training camp. Nordyke promises to put the best team on the field that ever represented this city.

CIVIC CRICKET CLUB ORGANIZE: ELECT OFFICERS

Expect to Have Strong Team in Game This Summer—Meeting Soon.

At a general meeting of the Civic Cricket club on Wednesday evening, held at the car barns, the following officers were elected for the year: Honorary president, Mayor W. J. McNamara; honorary vice-presidents, Commissioners A. G. Harrison, M. S. Booth, J. Chalmers, W. L. Richardson, B. J. Saunders, Aldermen Calder, Clarke, Campbell, Douglas, Driscoll, East, May, Kinney, Smith, Sheppard; acting president, Chas. Dawes; secretary, Edouard Pascoe; treasurer, F. Barnhouse; captain, Ben Hirst; vice-captain, W. Moore; umpire, M. Maddison.

F. Wormald and E. Pascoe were elected as delegates to the league. Regular practices will be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 6.30 on Diamond Park. The next general meeting will be held in the Civic block on Wednesday, April 1st at 8 o'clock, to which all interested cricketers are invited. It is the intention of the club to put a strong team on the field this summer.

AT THE TRAINING CAMPS

Washington, March 27.—Washington Americans 6, Philadelphia Nationals 1.

Atlanta, March 27.—New York Americans 12, Atlanta Southern 3.

Macon, March 27.—St. Louis Americans 13, Macon South-Atlantic 13.

Raleigh, March 27.—The Philadelphia Americans today beat the Raleigh Carolina league team 10 to 1.

Macon, Ga., March 27.—John Evers today was chosen captain of the Boston National league team here, by Manager Stallings succeeded Wm. Sweeney who was sold to the Chicago National league club.

THE WAIL OF THE LOSER.

Some members of the Colt's basketball team are finding it pretty hard to forget their defeat at the hands of the Hight School team Tuesday night. Its a pretty bitter pill they have been called upon to swallow, and it is inclined to stick in their throats. So much so, that they have found it necessary to find a great deal of fault with the write-up of the game as appeared on this page, claiming it was a very unfair criticism of the game, but if they are sufficiently cooled down by this time, it might be well for them one and all to get down to business and be prepared to play a real game of basketball when they next meet the High School team, and save themselves from another such trouncing at the hands of the school kids.

Ball Player in Court

Washington, March 27.—William Killifer catcher for the Philadelphia Nationals was summoned last night to appear in the federal court of Grand Rapids, Mich., to show cause why he should not be enjoined from playing with the National league. The action was brought by the Federal league for alleged breach of contract.

Regina Get Allan Cup

Regina, March 27.—The Allan cup reached Regina yesterday from Winnipeg and a place of honor at the winter fair building last night when the world's champions hockey players were publicly honored.

MATTY'S BIG LEAGUE GOSSIP

BY CHRISTY MATHEWSON
THE GIANTS' STAR PITCHER

By the addition of Evers to the Boston club, I believe George Stallings now has a pennant contender on his hands. If George had searched this land far and wide for the very man he needed for the Boston club, he could not have hit upon a happier selection than Peppery John. He is just the balancing force that the young Boston infield needs to knit it together into a good machine.

Stallings was talking over his system of team building last summer one day when Giants were playing in Boston.

"I have inherited a lot of broken down ball clubs in my time," said the chief, "and I have discovered that the only way to obtain any results with one is to go out after all the likely looking green talent you can grab and select the best out of it. When I took hold of the Boston team this year, it was made up largely of a lot of worn out veterans who were wearing their futures for busters, and who had been cast off by other big league clubs because their days of usefulness had passed. Although these 'vets' had lost their speed and their arms, none had lost his swelled opinion of himself which he had gathered when he had been in his prime.

"I made up my mind I could finish last with a lot of green youngsters who will hustle for me as well as with a bunch of time worn veterans, so I began to cast the latter adrift. Now I, at least have some speed and some future to my club. It is not made up of players ready to decay and pass out. That is the trouble with so many managers of tail-end teams. They are ever ready to grab at the castoff of another leader when waivers are asked on some veteran, because they think they may get a few more years of baseball out of him. This is a foolish mistake."

"Johnny" Evers is one of the quickest thinkers in the big league, and he knows the game backwards. I believe that he could recite the rule book, because I have never heard him slip up on a point of the rules in any arguments with umpires, and he has had many in my hearing. Not very many umpires like to get tangled up in an argument with "Johnny" because he can soap the rails for a lot of them when it comes to arguments on the rules.

Aside from his head work, Evers is a great ball player, and I believe he has some of the best years of his baseball playing left in him, for he is still a young man. I look to see him do better this season than he has at any time since 1908, when the Cubs took the pennant from us by a nose and through Evers' fast headwork. After that year, "Johnny" met with financial reserves and was in an automobile accident which affected his playing, I am sure. The little second baseman had one shoe store in Troy, N.Y., his home town, and another in Chicago, and both failed. All his earnings were invested in the businesses, as I understand it, and these losses practically broke him.

He was riding in his automobile in Chicago one day with the sporting editor of a Chicago newspaper, one of his best friends. The car collided with a street car, and Evers' friend (his name was McDonald) was killed. This broke up Evers, who is of an extremely nervous temperament, anyway, and, combined with money losses, made him worry to the limit.

Hardly had he recovered from these misfortunes when he was made the manager of the Cubs after Murphy had got himself in bad with Chicago fans by his treatment of Frank Chance and Mordecai Brown. Evers encountered cliques on the club and opposition from the public, not to mention his troubles with Mr. Murphy. As a result, "Johnny" fretted to the limit, and it doubtless affected his playing.

But in Boston the conditions are ideal for John to return to his old time form. The cares and worries of managing a team are off his shoulders, and in George Stallings he has a leader in whom he has confidence and for whom he has respect. Evers is bound to be very valuable to the chief in mapping out his campaigns, and you can depend upon Stallings to take advantage of this. John is receiving as big a salary in Boston as he did with the Cubs when he was their leader, so he has no financial grievance. Neither has he any ambition left to be the manager of a club. He does not think that managing is what it has been cracked up to be. I recall the first time I saw him in New York last season after he had taken the reins over the Cubs.

"How do you like being a boss, 'Johnny?'" I asked him.

"If they ever offer you a job managing, Matty," he replied, "duck it and take the smallpox or yellow fever or something mild and easy instead.

Evers still has all his old speed and ability. He can hit, and there is not a better all around second baseman in the league than he. With Maranville, the young shortstop that the wizard Stallings turned up last season, these two should make a remarkable combination around second base, almost as good as the old Tinker and Evers one. By just this one move, Stallings has put together a fine infield. If the Boston team is allowed to retain Sweeney, he should be able to make good at first base, as he is a sturdy hitter. Of course he may have been disposed of elsewhere by the time this article is printed, as there are some indications to this effect. But, even without Sweeney, you can depend upon it that Stallings has some good man in mind to take care of the first bag for him. The Chief is seldom caught napping.

Understand, please, that I am not picking the Boston club to win the pennant; or anything like that, but I say that with the addition of Evers, it has a chance to be up there fighting, which is something no Boston National league team has done in some years. It was a great move on the part of Stallings and Gaffney to get "Johnny." When Stallings first took hold of the Boston team, he said to me one day:

"Well, I don't like the air of first place. We'll finish better than that this year."

After the season of 1913, he remarked:

"Fifth place is better than last, but we will finish higher than that next season. The first division looks good to me."

I predict that the Boston club will end in the first division next season, and the picking up of Evers has made this possible. Also, other teams which were pennant contenders and first division finishers last season, have been hurt by the raids of the Federals on organized baseball. The Phillies have lost some men in this way, the most valuable one, in my opinion, being Otto Knabe, who was considered to be a better player by fellow Big leaguers than by the spectators. The ball players realized the fight and "pep" he could put into a team. eH is also a handy man and hits well and timely. There are many men on the Philadelphia team I would prefer to have face me in a pinch than Knabe. His loss is going to be felt sorely by Philadelphia.

The Pirates have lost Hendrix, who, in spite of Fred Clarke's statement that his absence would not be felt, is going to hurt his club severely by jumping. Pittsburg is none too well fixed for pitchers, and Hendrix is a great performer and still young. In fact, he is just beginning to catch on to the ways of the big leagues. He did not have a very successful season last summer, but he has the stuff in him. They tell me that Hendrix was eager to get away from Pittsburg last year for some reason. There were rumors during the race that he was to be traded to the Giants, and he was tickled to death with the prospect. It is strange how most men on the other clubs are anxious to be switched to New York. After it has been rumored that a man is to go to the Giants, I have had them ask me with their palms to their mouths:

"Did you hear I was to be traded to the Giants? Is it true I am coming to New York? If you get a chance, put in a boost for me."

On the other hand, most all players hate to leave New York, and worry themselves to death if they hear any such rumor. I believe that poor "Josh" Devore had ten years taken off his life by the reports he heard that he was to be traded to various clubs before he was actually transferred to Cincinnati. Every time he would get a fresh bulletin on his destination he would rush to McGraw and ask:

"Am I going to be traded, 'Mac?'"

Is that true what I saw in the paper today?"

"If you'll wait until I trade you and quit letting the newspapers do it, you'll be lots happier," said "Mac" to "Josh" one day.

Of course, the Cubs are badly shot to pieces now, and I cannot see them at all for the first division. Therefore, it looks as if there were going to be some vacant places in the better half of the league standing this season, and Boston will probably fill one of these with Evers' help.

At the Horse Show.

P. H. Wynne and J. L. Wynne, two Edmonton police officers, and Royal Northwest Mounted Policemen Bible, Hunter and Wood, have entered in the cowboy horse race at the spring horse show next month, and will compete for the Robertson-Davidson cup. All these policemen are experienced cowboys, and will ride their best horses on the occasion.

Edmonton Cricket Club.

The Edmonton Cricket club will hold their annual meeting in the Builders' Exchange, McDougall Court, this evening (Friday) at 8 o'clock, when the officers for the year will be elected. All club members are asked to be present.

TODAY IN PUGILISTIC ANNALS.

1900—Bob Fitzsimmons knocked out Jim Daly in 1st round at Philadelphia. Daly was a fine boxer and as a trainer and teacher of boxing he had few superiors, but in the ring he lacked the strength to make his blows effective. For some time Daly was Corbett's trainer and instructor, and he put the Californian into condition to win the title from John L. Sullivan. Corbett has often said that Daly's knowledge of the science of boxing was greater than that of any other man he ever knew. In his youth Daly was an acrobat and contortionist with a circus, and this work, while increasing his agility and speed, robbed him of his stamina. In 1896 he had a jaw fractured in a scrap with Kid McCoy. After that he became instructor of boxing in a Buffalo club and later followed the same occupation in Philadelphia. His last ring bout was with Black Beatty, a colored light heavyweight of Buffalo, and he won the decision in 20 rounds.

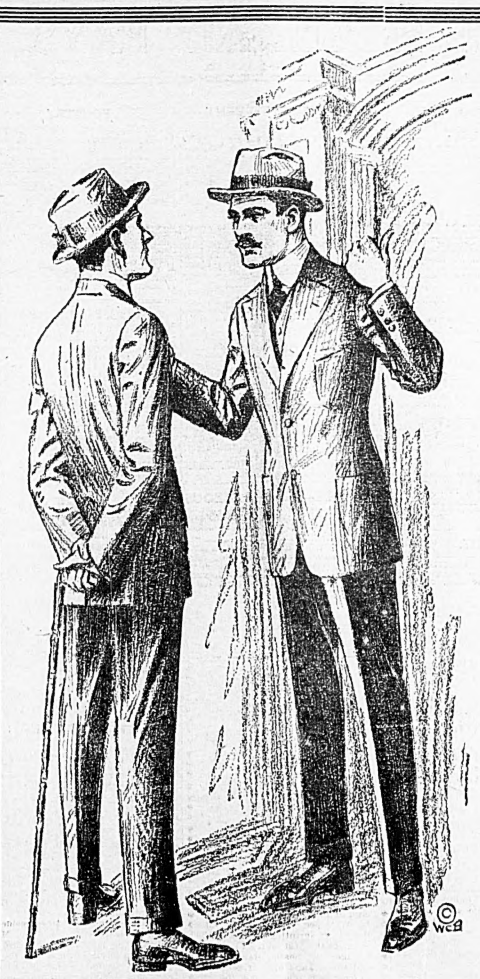

1901—Tommy Sullivan and Arthur Rice fought 20-round draw at New London. Connecticut was then a popular fighting ground for the boxers, owing to its proximity to New York City, where the game was then prohibited, and the featherweights were especially prone to settle their differences in the Wooden Nutmeg state. Sullivan and Rice were among the leading contestants for the crown worn by Terry McGovern. Earlier in the year, Sullivan had whipped Joe Bernstein at New Britain and Billy Barrett at Hartford, and Rice had defeated Hugh McFadden at New Haven. Austin and Tommy fought another 20-round draw in June, 1901. Later in that year, at Hartford, Young Corbett took the featherweight title by knocking out Terry McGovern. Tommy Sullivan succeeded Corbett as champion in 1904, and held the title until 1908, when he was defeated by Abe Attell.

1907—Billy Papke and Billy Rhodes fought 15-round draw at Davenport.

1911—Mike Gibbons defeated Freddie Hicks in 8 rounds at Minneapolis.

1912—Georges Carpentier knocked out Hubert Roe in fifth round at Marseilles.

1912—Johnny Dundee outpointed Young Wanger in 10 rounds at New York.

News of the Markets

Winnipeg Grain.

Winnipeg, March 27.—The wheat market was dull and lifeless and little or no business being transacted in most departments. The volume in options was light and fluctuations were within narrow limits. Winnipeg futures opened unchanged to 1-4 higher on steady Liverpool cables, and closed unchanged to 1-8 lower. Minneapolis market was influenced to some extent by the heavy receipts in the south, while Chicago was firm, caused by some apprehension regarding deficiency of moisture and dry winds prevailing in the southwest.

Minneapolis opened 1-8 lower to 1-8 higher and closed unchanged to 1-4 advance.

Chicago opened 1-8 lower to 1-8 higher and closed unchanged.

Chicago corn opened 1-8 lower for all months and closed 3-8 to 3-4 lower. Liverpool cables closed unchanged to 1-8 higher.

Paris unchanged to 1-2 lower. Berlin 1-4 lower. Budapest 3-4 advance, and Antwerp unchanged. The cash demand for all grains was quiet and no export inquiry.

Cash wheat closed unchanged to 1-4 higher for contract grades.

Cash oats closed unchanged.

Cash barley closed unchanged.

Cash flax closed 1-8 lower for all grades.

Inspections totalled 209 cars, against 407 last year, and in sight were 226.

Grain inspections: Spring wheat, 1 Hard, 1; 1 Nor., 97; 2 Nor., 44; 3 Nor., 16; 4 Nor., 6; rejected No. 2, 9; no grade, 4; rejected, 3.

Oats: 2 C.W., 44; 3 C.W., 22; extra 1 feed, 1; 2 feed, 14; mixed, 1.

Barley: No. 4, 3; rejected, 7; no grade, 5; feed, 2.

Flax: 1 N.W.C., 23.

Totals: Wheat, 183; oats, 82; barley, 20; flax, 23; screening, 1; total, 309.

Chicago Cattle

Chicago, March 27.—Cattle receipts 4,000 market steady. Beeves 700 to 960, Texas steers 725 to 820; stockers and feeders, 560 to 810; cows and heifers 370 to 850; calves 600 to 900.

Hogs receipts 20,000 market lower. Mixed 845 to 875; heavy 830 to 875; rough 830 to 840; pigs 725 to 870; bulk 855 to 870.

Sheep receipts 16,000, market higher, native 510 to 660; yearlings 615 to 735; lambs 760 to 915.

Strength developed in wheat today owing to the less favorable weather and crop reports from Kansas there was a steady close with the market ranging from the same as last night at 1-4 higher. Other leading staples showed a net decline, corn 1-4 to 3-4 and oats 1-8 to 1-8 at 1-4.

Wheat divorced itself from corn almost at the outset. Regardless of the rains over much of the winter wheat area, complaints of dry weather continued to arrive from Kansas, particularly the western half of the state where it was said that moisture was still lacking and that high winds and dust had done serious damage. Severe cold in the Northwest, ten below at Bismarck, N.D., is also talk of a cold wave and increased the buying of wheat. The fact that Argentine shipments had dropped off to less than 1-4 of what they were a year ago counted also on the purchase side of wheat.

Pressure of constantly lower Argentine offers at the seaboard, however, outweighed in the end all other influences. Oats held up most of the day because of adverse weather for seeding but ultimately yielded a little to weakness of corn. A cargo of 300,000 bushels of Canada oats brought here last fall was unloaded today for delivery on speculative contracts.

Toronto Cattle

Toronto, March 27.—There was only a light run of cattle offering yesterday, but light as it was, there was enough to meet all demands. It was a slow clean up on the close of the week and prices barely held steady except for one or two small lots of extra choice cattle a couple of these fetching fancy prices. Several picked steers and heifers sold around 800 to 825. For the rest from 700 to 760 for good butcher steers and heifers. Common light rough stuff was cleared off at all prices, but generally lower.

With Easter approaching a better class of cattle of quality will probably begin to come in next week and trade generally may be more active than it has been this week.

The demand for good stockers continues steady and fairly active—Good veal calves steady. Sheep easy and lambs steady. Hogs firmer at 9?9 fed and watered.

Union yards receipts 260 cattle 29 calves, 1,126 hogs and 35 sheep and lambs.

Butcher cattle 800; medium 740 to 760; common 650 to 675; bitchers cows choice 650 to 700; medium cows 575 to 625; common 450 to 5550; butchers bulls choice 650 to 725; good bulls 550 to 750; rough bulls 400 to 450; feeders 1,000 lbs. 750 to 720; short keep 1100 pounds 740 to 775; stockers 650 to 80 0pounds 650 to 735; medium 575 to 600; light 500 to 550; canners and cutters 350 to 400; milkers, choice each $75 to $90; common and medium $35 to $45; springers $60 to $75. Light ewes 625 to 700; heavy 375 to 625; bucks 575 to 625.

Hogs fed and watered 920 f.o.b. 885; off cars 945; lambs 950 to 975; spring lambs 600 to 900.

Toronto Stocks.

Toronto, March 27.—The active stock on the local board yesterday was Brazilian. It was very strong. The stock rose to 83 3-4 and closed at 82. This is a net gain of 2-4 for the day. Barcelona also was in better demand, closing 3-8 higher. Bart, pfd., rose a point. No transactions in C.P.R. stock here, but this stock was weaker in London and in New York. Dominion Steel was stronger, 200 shares bringing 32 1-4 and 32 3-8. Canada Bread was 1-4 higher and Canners 1-2 better, closing at 55 1-2. Maple Leaf, on the other hand, was weaker, common closing at 42. Toronto paper declined 2 points, there being sales at 60 and 58. Steel of Canada was 1-8 better at 17 1-8, and the pfd. 1-2 higher at 83 1-2. Toronto Railway was quiet at 139. Winnipeg Electric sold 200 to 200 1-2, the first transactions for some time. Bank shares dull.

Montreal Produce.

Montreal, March 27.—The demand for butter is fair. Cheese quiet. Eggs weaker at a decline of 2 cents per dozen owing to large receipts. Quotations: Cheese, finest westerns, 14 1-4 to 15; finest easterns 14 to 14 1-4.

Butter, choicest creamery 29 to 29 1-2; seconds 28 to 28 1-2; eggs, fresh 25 to 25; pork, heavy Canada short mess bris 35 to 36; thin 29; short cut back bris 45 to 55 pcs. 28 1-2.

GETTING WORTH FROM OLD AUTOS

President of Cole Motor Car Company Puts Used Machines in Service.

GIVES PUBLIC BARGAINS IN REMODELED MOTORS

Real Usefulness Found After Two Years, Believes Indianapolis Maker.

There is a great bi-product of the big automobile industry that the general public has not heretofore taken serious cognizance of, but which is the means of giving to hundreds an opportunity to purchase a really fine automobile at surprisingly low cost, according to J. J. Cole, president of the Cole Motor Car company, of Indianapolis.

In the garages of the reputable automobile dealers of this city, today expert mechanics are putting into first class shape by overhauling, putting on new coats of paint, new tops, fore roods, etc., some of the best automobile "buys" that could be offered to the public. Many of these machines have only been run from 6,000 to 8,000 miles. They are in better shape than when they left the first automobile dealer's hands.

Trying to Convince Public

Mr. Cole, originator of the Standardized Cole, has been giving the used car question serious consideration, believing that the dealer who puts his reputation behind a used car that he disposes of, knows the value is there, but is not thoroughly able to convince the purchasing public.

Mr. Cole says there are numerous good "buys" in nearly every reputable automobile dealer's establishment in this city, and that if the public knew of the value, from the service mile standpoint that is in the vast majority of these cars that there would be a great number of people who desire to own an automobile, taking advantage of the situation.

In his arguments Mr. Cole points out that there are approximately 300,000 automobiles built annually. Automobile statisticians figure that the life of a good automobile is between 80,000 and 100,000 miles. The average user drives his automobile about 7,000 miles annually. At the end of that 7,000 miles, pressure from the family circle and personal pride on the part of the owner impels him to turn his old car into the retail dealer for a new automobile.

This car then is generally classed as "junk," when as a matter of fact, this automobile has only really started out to economically and successfully perform the real work of its life.

If a Cole automobile dealer gets this automobile he turns it over to his expert mechanics. At a small cost, may be $150, it is put in first-class shape and then put in the used car department for sale.

"People wonder where the used car goes," says President Cole. "The reason that they cannot answer this question themselves is because big organizations, like the Cole dealers, are so deftly rebuilding these used cars that the public does not recognize a used car when they see it running on the streets. There is no more reason why a car at the end of two years should be regarded as senile than for concluding that a man at 32 years of age has finished his usefulness. The average good car at the end of two years has merely settled down to the place where its working parts are perfectly coordinated."

DYING CONSUMPTIVE SENT ACROSS LINE

Was Only in Canada Six Months When Deportation Ordered.

COSTS RATEPAYERS $250

Local Immigration Says He Has No Recollection of Proceedings.

(Special to the Capital.)

Spokane, Wash., March 27.—Because he was an American citizen, a Spokane man who went to Canada with his wife and child about six months ago has been sent back across the line to await the advent of the angel of death under the protection of the Stars and Stripes.

Although he was in the last stages of tuberculosis and probably will live little longer than a week, the Canadian officials have gone to an expense of about $250 to return him to the United States. After he has succumbed to the disease, he has been informed, his widow and child will be permitted to return to her relatives, who live in and about Edmonton.

The Canadian immigration authorities cause no examination of aliens on the border line, but the Spokane man was so far gone with the disease that he was forced to go to a hospital as a public charge, and his condition thus became known to the authorities at once.

Details of the case were made public today by County Charity Superintendent P. S. Redding, who withheld the name of the deported American.

W. H. Clegg, local immigration agent, when shown the above despatch this morning, stated that he had no recollections of the person referred to having been deported from this city. However, as no names were mentioned, it might have happened.

"Any person who is a citizen of the United States, or Great Britain or any other country except Canada is liable to deportation if he is subject to tuberculosis or anything else which may make him a public charge, and Mr. Clegg states that there would be nothing contrary to the regulations in the above case if it is true.

He also says that the cost of deporting a man, even with a family, from here to Spokane would not be anything like $250, as the railway over which they come in, is obliged to take all deported people without charge.

SPLENDID PROGRAM ARRANGED; CONCERT TO BE BEST OF YEAR

A high class concert under the auspices of the Alberta Musical Festival will be given in First Presbyterian church this evening. The concert will no doubt be one of the best musical treats of the season, as it will comprise selections by all the choral organizations of the city that have up to this time established for themselves a reputation.

The proceeds are to go towards paying the deficit existing from the festival of 1913, and it is hoped that all those who have the interest of this at heart will endeavor to be present and take a lively interest in wiping off the debt. The splendid program to be given is published below:

"O Canada, Beloved Fatherland"... Full chorus ..... —Lavallee
"Gloria in Excelsis" (Mass in B flat.) Westminster choir. —Farmer
"O Gladsome Light" ..... —Sullivan
Christ Church choir.
"With Verdure Clad" (The Creation.) Miss Bessie Pilkie. —Haydn
"O Bountiful Jesu" ..... —Stainer
St. Paul's choir.
"The Lord be a Lamp" ..... —Benedict
First Presbyterian choir.
"For the Mountains shall Depart." (Elijah ..... —Mendelssohn
Mr. C. A. Richardson.
"By Babylon's Wave" ..... —Gounod
All Saints choir.
Second Part.
"Tis the Harp in the Air" ..... —Bishop
Mrs. A. McLean and McDougall choir.
"The Message" ..... —Caldicott
Strathcona Choral Society.
"Marguerite" ..... —Lohr

THIS STOMACH REMEDY HELPS YOUR FRIENDS

Almost every day some grateful person comes into our store and tells us of benefits received from the use of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Knowing how much good they have done others, and knowing what they are made of, we feel sure they will help you. So great is our faith in them that we urge you to try them entirely at our risk, with our personal promise that if they don't do all you expect them to do and make your stomach comfortable and healthy and your digestion easy, we'll hand back your money.

We couldn't endorse anything more strongly than we do Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Containing Pepsin and Bismuth, two of the greatest digestive aids known to medical science, they soothe the stomach, check heartburn and distress, promote a natural flow of the gastric juice, and help regulate the bowels. Remember, if they don't make your digestion so easy and comfortable that you can eat whatever you like whenever you like, we want you to come back and tell us and get your money. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only at our store. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

A. Archibald, Druggist, 313 Jasper East.

The Cancelling of an Order Brings Women $15.00 to $18.50 EASTER SUITS at $11.95

WE BOUGHT this portion of a cancelled order, not because our assortment was limited but because the price was right and we're going to pass them on in a similar manner.

An Easter suit manufacturer had a large order cancelled, after the suits were made up, by a firm going out of business. So they immediately inquired if we could handle 25 of them at a special price concession. We accepted and now they're here and on sale. A Spring Opening Special Saturday at .. $11.95

Women who have yet to buy a new Easter Suit can't afford to overlook this exceptional saving opportunity.

They are tailored of chiffon broadcloth, two-toned whipcord, wool poplin and fine French serge; are tans, fawns, browns, new blue, cadet, grey, navy or black, in half-a-dozen or more different styles, silk lined in fancy stripe, plaid or plain effects. Coats regulation length, with rounded fronts or very much cutaway, with one, two or more button fasteners; some fashioned with tailored collar and revers of self; while others are trimmed on the collar and sleeves, with satin or brocaded silks in shades to harmonize. Skirts are in the two or three piece styles, with gathered or tuck backs, trimmed with tailored fold down centre front; while others are peg top, pleated on the sides, with fullness caught in below the knee, to retain the slim effect at the bottom and trimmed with buttons to match the coat. Sizes assorted, 14 to 18 years, misses. Sizes, 34 to 42, women's. On sale Saturday $11.95
